

A Time to Restore
to build | to mend | to heal

Jeremiah 30:3

“Look, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah, says the LORD, and I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.”

Context of Jeremiah 30-31

- Exiled due to injustice and idolatry
- “oppressors”, “master”, “lovers”
 - pleasures | perversions*
 - prosperity | performance*
- “masters” don’t care, can’t save, can’t heal
- Sinners judged, faithful tested
- Dream following letter to exiles (Ch 29)
 - 70 years, seek the welfare of the city
 - I have plans to prosper you!

Jeremiah 31:12

They shall come and sing aloud on the height of Zion, and they shall be radiant over the goodness of the LORD, over the grain, the wine, and the oil, and over the young of the flock and herd; their soul shall be like a well-watered garden, they shall sorrow no more.

Jeremiah 31:4-6

Again I will build you... Again you shall adorn yourself with tambourines and revel in the dance of the merry-makers. Again you shall plant vineyards... and enjoy the fruit. For there shall be a day when watchmen will call in the hill country of Ephraim: 'Arise, and let us go to Zion, to the LORD our God.'
