

DISCONTENTMENT

Discontentment: a place in our hearts where the grass is always greener somewhere else.

Discontentment is costly, we always pay a price.

Quote: Where the grass is greener, the electricity bill is higher.

THANKSGIVING

Philippians 4:8 (NKJV)
 Finally brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy, meditate on these things.

THANKSGIVING

Isaiah 62:10 (NKJV)

Go through, go through the gates!
Prepare the way for the people.
Build up, build up the highway!
Take out the stones, lift up a banner for the people!

THANKSGIVING

- We go through the gates with thanksgiving.
- We prepare the way and build a highway for the people by changing the atmosphere in our workplace, families & city.
- We lift up a banner for the people by being different, by showing them the way to Jesus.

GOD'S HEART & DESIRES

1 Timothy 2:1-4 (NKJV)

Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions and giving of thanks be made for all men, for kings and all who are in authority...

GOD'S HEART & DESIRES

It is time to:

- trade a spirit of negativity for a spirit of thankfulness
- trade a spirit of discontentment for a spirit of contentment

So that we could partner with God to see the kingdom come in the Eastern Cape and in East London.

DECLARATION

Isaiah 62:10-12 (NLT)

Go out through the gates! Prepare the highway for my people to return! Smooth out the road; pull out the boulders; raise a flag for all the nations to see. The Lord has sent this message to East London: "Tell the people, 'Look, your Saviour is coming. See, He brings His reward with Him as he comes.'"
