

DILIGENCE

Deuteronomy 6:5-7 NKJV

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart.

DILIGENCE

You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down and when you rise up."

DILIGENCE

Our first responsibility: To love the Lord with all our heart, soul and strength.

Every healthy relationship on earth flows from a healthy relationship with God.

Our second responsibility: To teach our children with diligence.

DILIGENCE

Our goal is not to make our children dependent on us, but dependent on God.

The biggest gift that you can give to someone is to teach them to look to God, not to you.

FAITH AND PATIENCE

Hebrews 6:11&12 NKJV

"And we desire that each one of you....do not become sluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises."

FAITH AND PATIENCE

We must look to our children through the eyes of God.

Prophetic words empowers us to have faith and patience.

BEING REAL

Romans 12:9a NKJV

"Let love be without hypocrisy..."

BEING REAL

Your example speaks more than a thousand words or scriptures. Your example does not need to be perfect. It just needs to be real.

BEING PRESENT

Proverbs 22:6 NKJV

"Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

BEING PRESENT

*What does it take to know the heart of another person? It takes, time, attention, and wisdom. We need to become students of who our kids are. It's not simply a matter of being with our kids. We need to have a plan and an interest in the matters of their heart – Danny Silk - loving your kids on purpose

THE POWER OF REDEMPTION

We can't influence from a position of fear. We will become overprotected and control our children instead of empowering them to make choices.

THE POWER OF REDEMPTION

God is bigger than our mistakes, He is greater than our fears and stronger than our ignorance.
