

Persistent Prayer,
Luke 18.1-8

Hennie Swart

Luke 18.1-8

¹Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. ²He said: "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared about men. ³And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, 'Grant me justice against my adversary.'

Luke 18.1-8

⁴"For some time he refused. But finally he said to himself, 'Even though I don't fear God or care about men, ⁵yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she won't eventually wear me out with her coming!' "

Luke 18.1-8

⁶And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. ⁷And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? ⁸I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

Persistent Prayer

1. The need for persistent prayer
2. The nature of persistent prayer
3. The basis of persistent prayer

conclusion

Prayer that is truly done by faith is persistent in nature and based on a right relationship with God in Christ.
