

THIS IS US!

COVENENTAL RELATIONSHIPS: PART 2:

THIS IS HOW GODLY FRIENDSHIPS LOOK

- (Joh 17:11) And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one.

- (Joh 17:21) that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.

The background of the slide features a grayscale photograph of two individuals in profile, facing each other as if in conversation. The person on the left has a prominent white beard. The person on the right has their hand raised near their face. A large, solid orange circle is positioned on the far left edge of the image. The text is centered over the image.

1) Covenant relationships are Cross-Centred

The person on the left has a full, white beard. The person on the right is gesturing with their hand. The overall aesthetic is minimalist and professional. A solid orange circle is partially visible on the left edge of the frame.

- (Pro 27:6) Faithful are the wounds of a friend; profuse are the kisses of an enemy.

2) Covenant relationships see with “prophetic” eyes

- The background of the slide features a grayscale image of a man with a long white beard on the left and a woman on the right with her hand raised in a gesture of prayer or praise. The text is overlaid on this image.
- (1Co 14:3) On the other hand, the one who prophesies speaks to people for their up building and encouragement and consolation.

“ So that I treat them not as they are but as God sees them, and then I invite them into their destiny”

- (Rom 4:17) as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations"—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

3) Covenant relationships are authentic

- (1Pe 4:8) Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins.

- (Jas 5:16) Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working.

I want to serve a God who will love me and will take me as I am and take care of me.
