The “word” of God

- (Joh 11:17) Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days.
- (Joh 11:18) Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off,
- (Joh 11:19) and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother.

The “word” of God

- (Joh 11:20) So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary remained seated in the house.
- (Joh 11:21) Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died

- The “word” of God
- (Joh 11:22) But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you."
- (Joh 11:23) Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."
- (Joh 11:24) Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

The “Word” of God

- (Joh 11:25) Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live,
- (Joh 11:26) and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

The “word” of God

- (Joh 11:27) She said to him, "Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world."
- (Joh 11:28) When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary, saying in private, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you."

The “word” of God

- (Joh 11:29) And when she heard it, she rose quickly and went to him.
- (Joh 11:30) Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him.

- (Joh 11:31) When the Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary rise quickly and go out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.
- (Joh 11:32) Now when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

The “word” of God

- (Joh 11:33) When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in his spirit and greatly troubled.
- (Joh 11:34) And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see."

The “word” of God

- (Joh 11:35) Jesus wept.
- (Joh 11:36) So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!"
- (Joh 11:37) But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man also have kept this man from dying?"

Lazarus rises

- (Joh 11:43) When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out."
- (Joh 11:44) The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Jesus: God revealed on earth

- (Joh 1:1) In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
- (Joh 1:14) And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.
