PART 3 - The Knowledge of God

A soft-focus, misty landscape of rolling mountains and a river valley. The scene is rendered in a monochromatic blue and grey palette, creating a serene and atmospheric background. The mountains are layered, with the closest peaks being more defined and the distant ones fading into a light mist. A river winds through the valley floor, reflecting the ambient light.

Grow deeper with God by:

- We have to move from knowing to becoming
- We have to move from observing to yielding your life and following His example and leading.

- (1Co 2:1) And I, when I came to you, brothers, did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom.
- (1Co 2:2) For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.
- (1Co 2:3) And I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling,

- (1Co 2:4) and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,
- (1Co 2:5) so that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.
- (1Co 2:6) Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away.

- (1Co 2:7) But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory.
- (1Co 2:8) None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
- (1Co 2:9) But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him"—

- (1Co 2:10) these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.
- (1Co 2:11) For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.
- (1Co 2:12) Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God.

- (1Co 2:13) And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual.
- (1Co 2:14) The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned.

3 Important things about the “Knowledge of God”

1) God reveals Himself to Humans

- (Joh 1:14) And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

1) God reveals Himself to Humans

- (Joh 1:14) And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.
- (Rom 1:19) For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them.

- A misty, blue-toned landscape with mountains and a lake. The scene is hazy and atmospheric, with the mountains in the background and a calm body of water in the foreground reflecting the light. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.
- (Rom 3:11) no one understands; no one seeks for God.,

He finds us.

A misty, blue-toned landscape featuring a large body of water in the foreground, likely a lake or a wide river. The water is calm, reflecting the surrounding environment. In the background, there are several layers of mountains, with the closest ones being more defined and the ones further away fading into a thick mist. The overall color palette is a range of blues and greys, creating a serene and atmospheric scene. The text "1) God reveals Himself to Humans" is overlaid on the upper left portion of the image.

2) We can Never Fully understand God

2) We can Never Fully understand God

- (Psa 145:3) Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable.
- (Psa 147:5) Great is our Lord, and abundant in power; his understanding is beyond measure.

2) We can Never Fully understand God

- (Rom 11:33) Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!
- (Rom 11:34) "For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counsellor?"

2) We can Never Fully understand God

- (Col 1:10) so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

3) We can Truly know God

A serene, monochromatic landscape in shades of blue and grey. The scene features a calm body of water in the foreground, which perfectly reflects the surrounding environment. In the middle ground, a large, rounded mountain peak rises from the water's edge. The background is filled with a range of jagged, misty mountains that fade into a soft, hazy sky. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and ethereal.

3) We can Truly know God

- (1Jn 4:8) Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.
- (Rom 3:26) It was to show his righteousness at the present time,...
- (1Jn 1:5) This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.
