Let Go to Take Hold

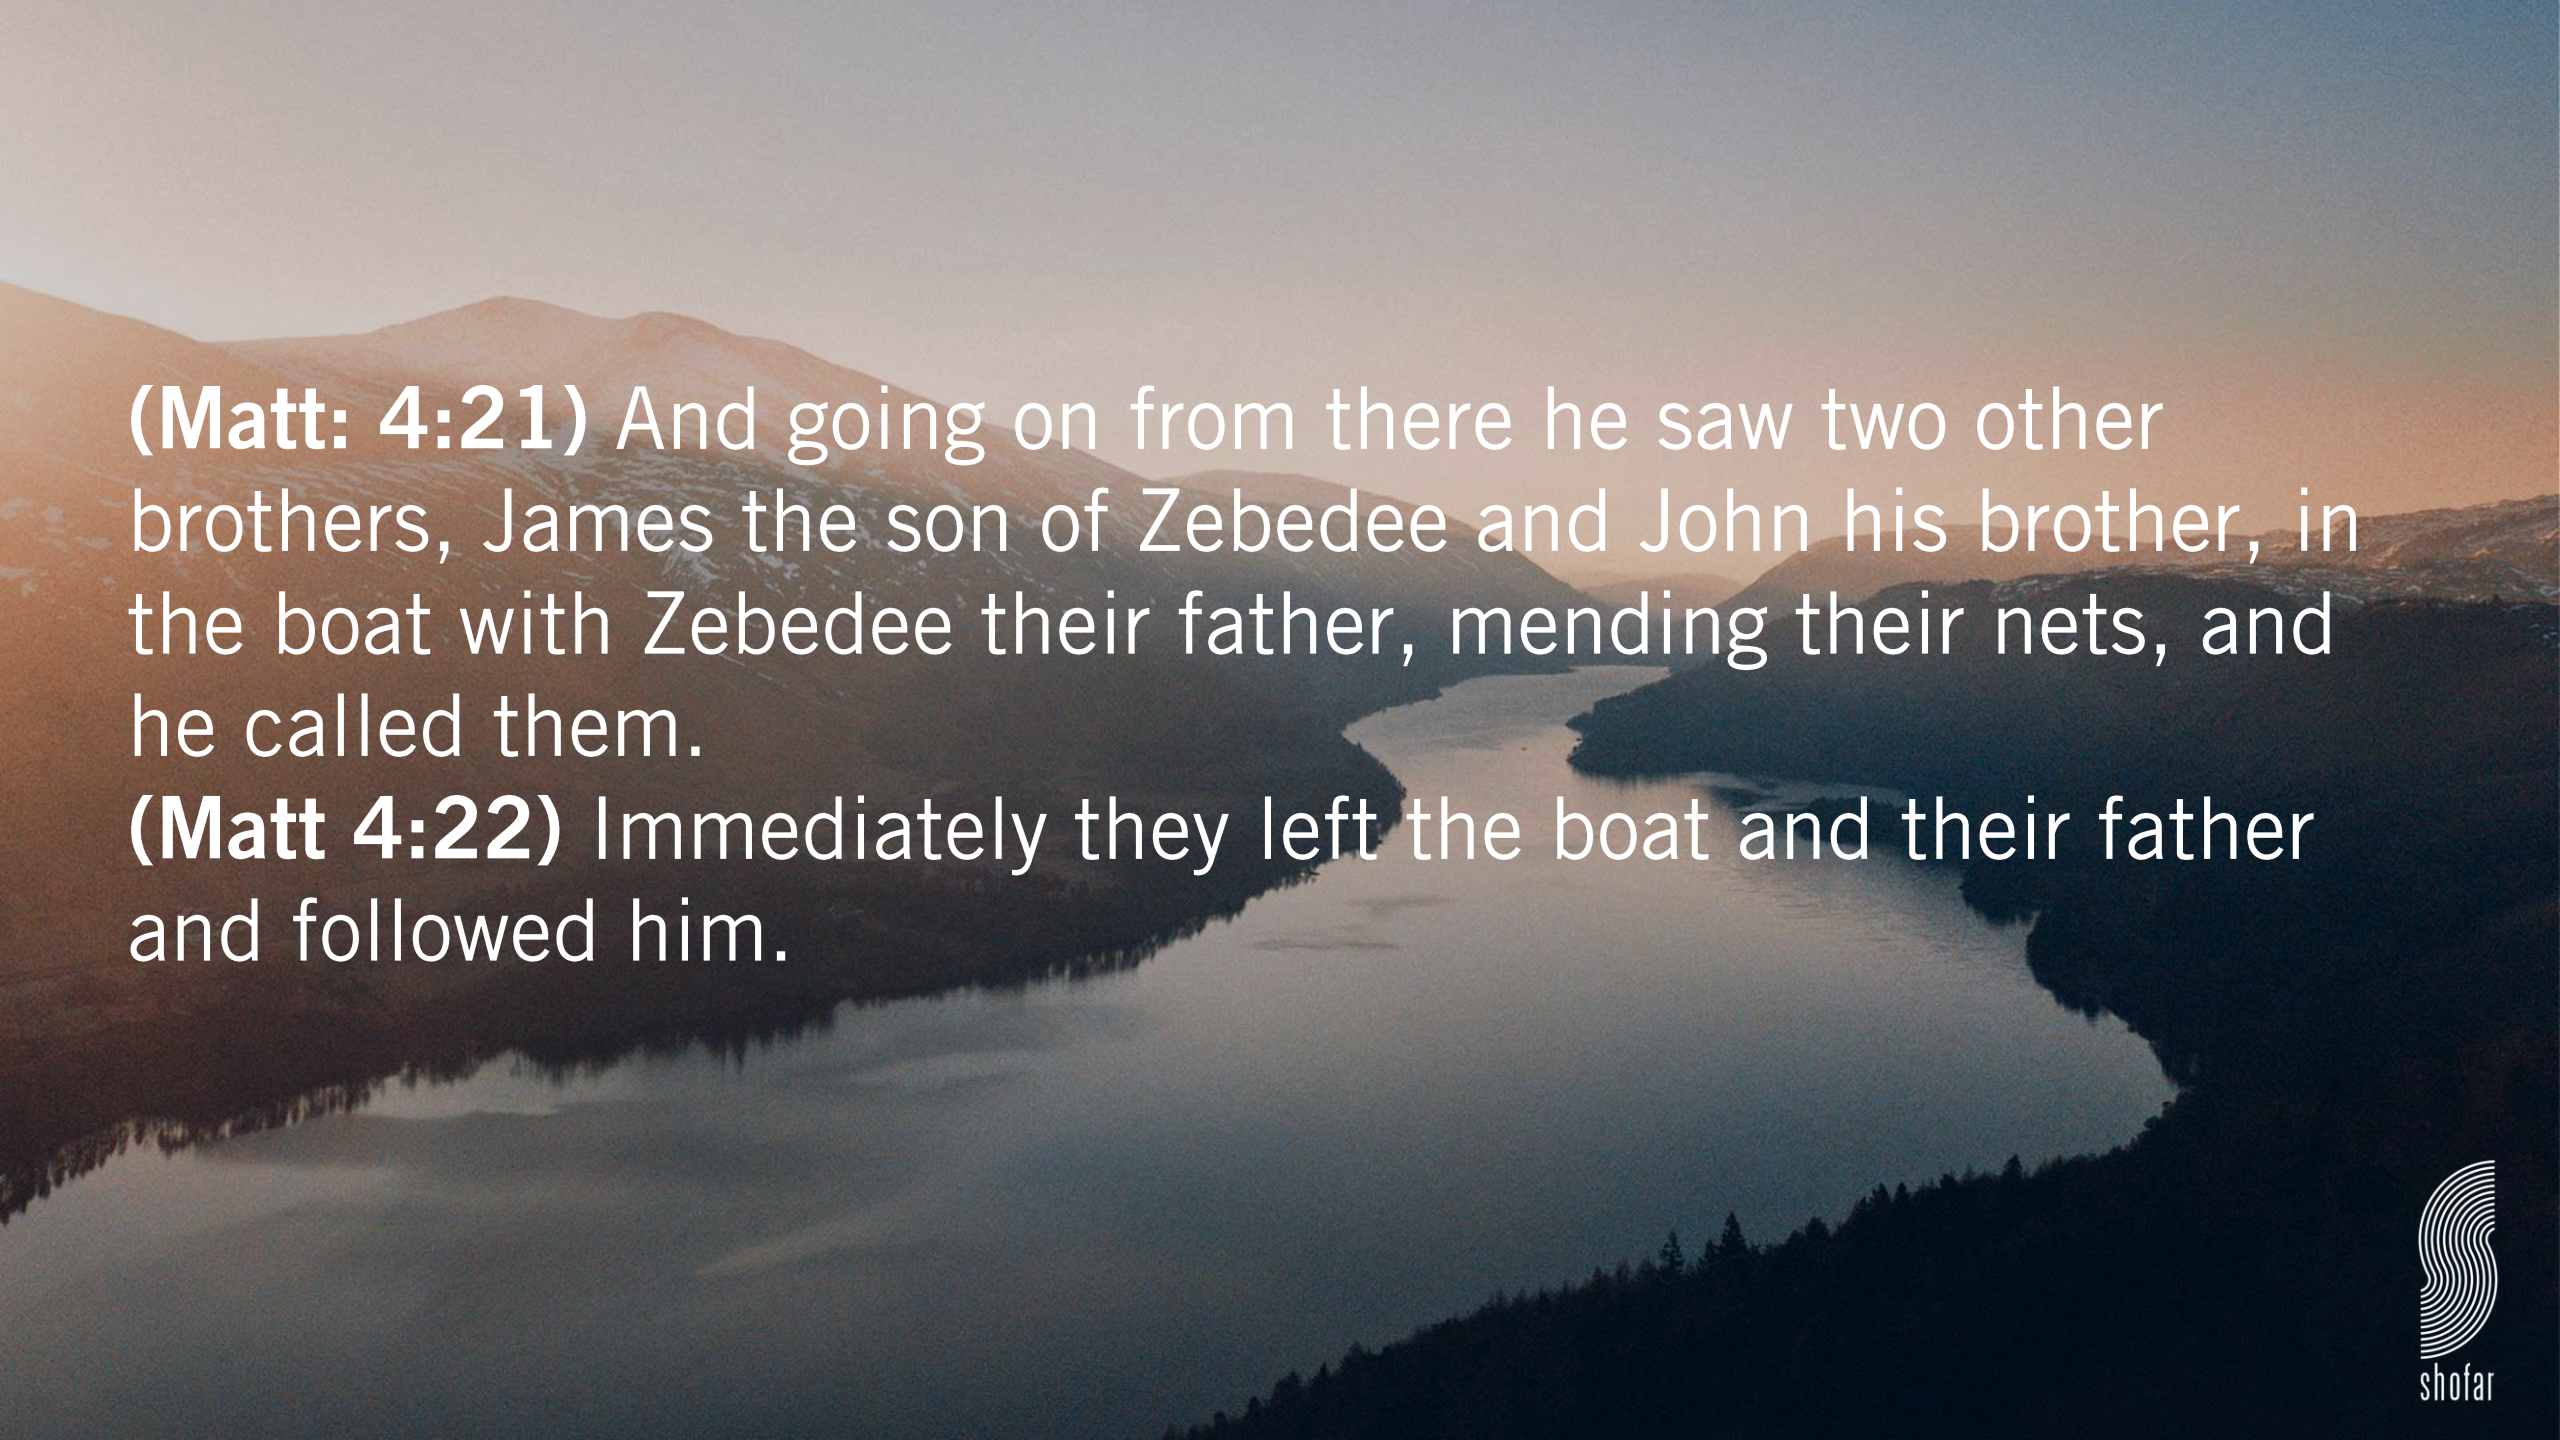

Wiehan Brown

(Matt: 4:18) While walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.

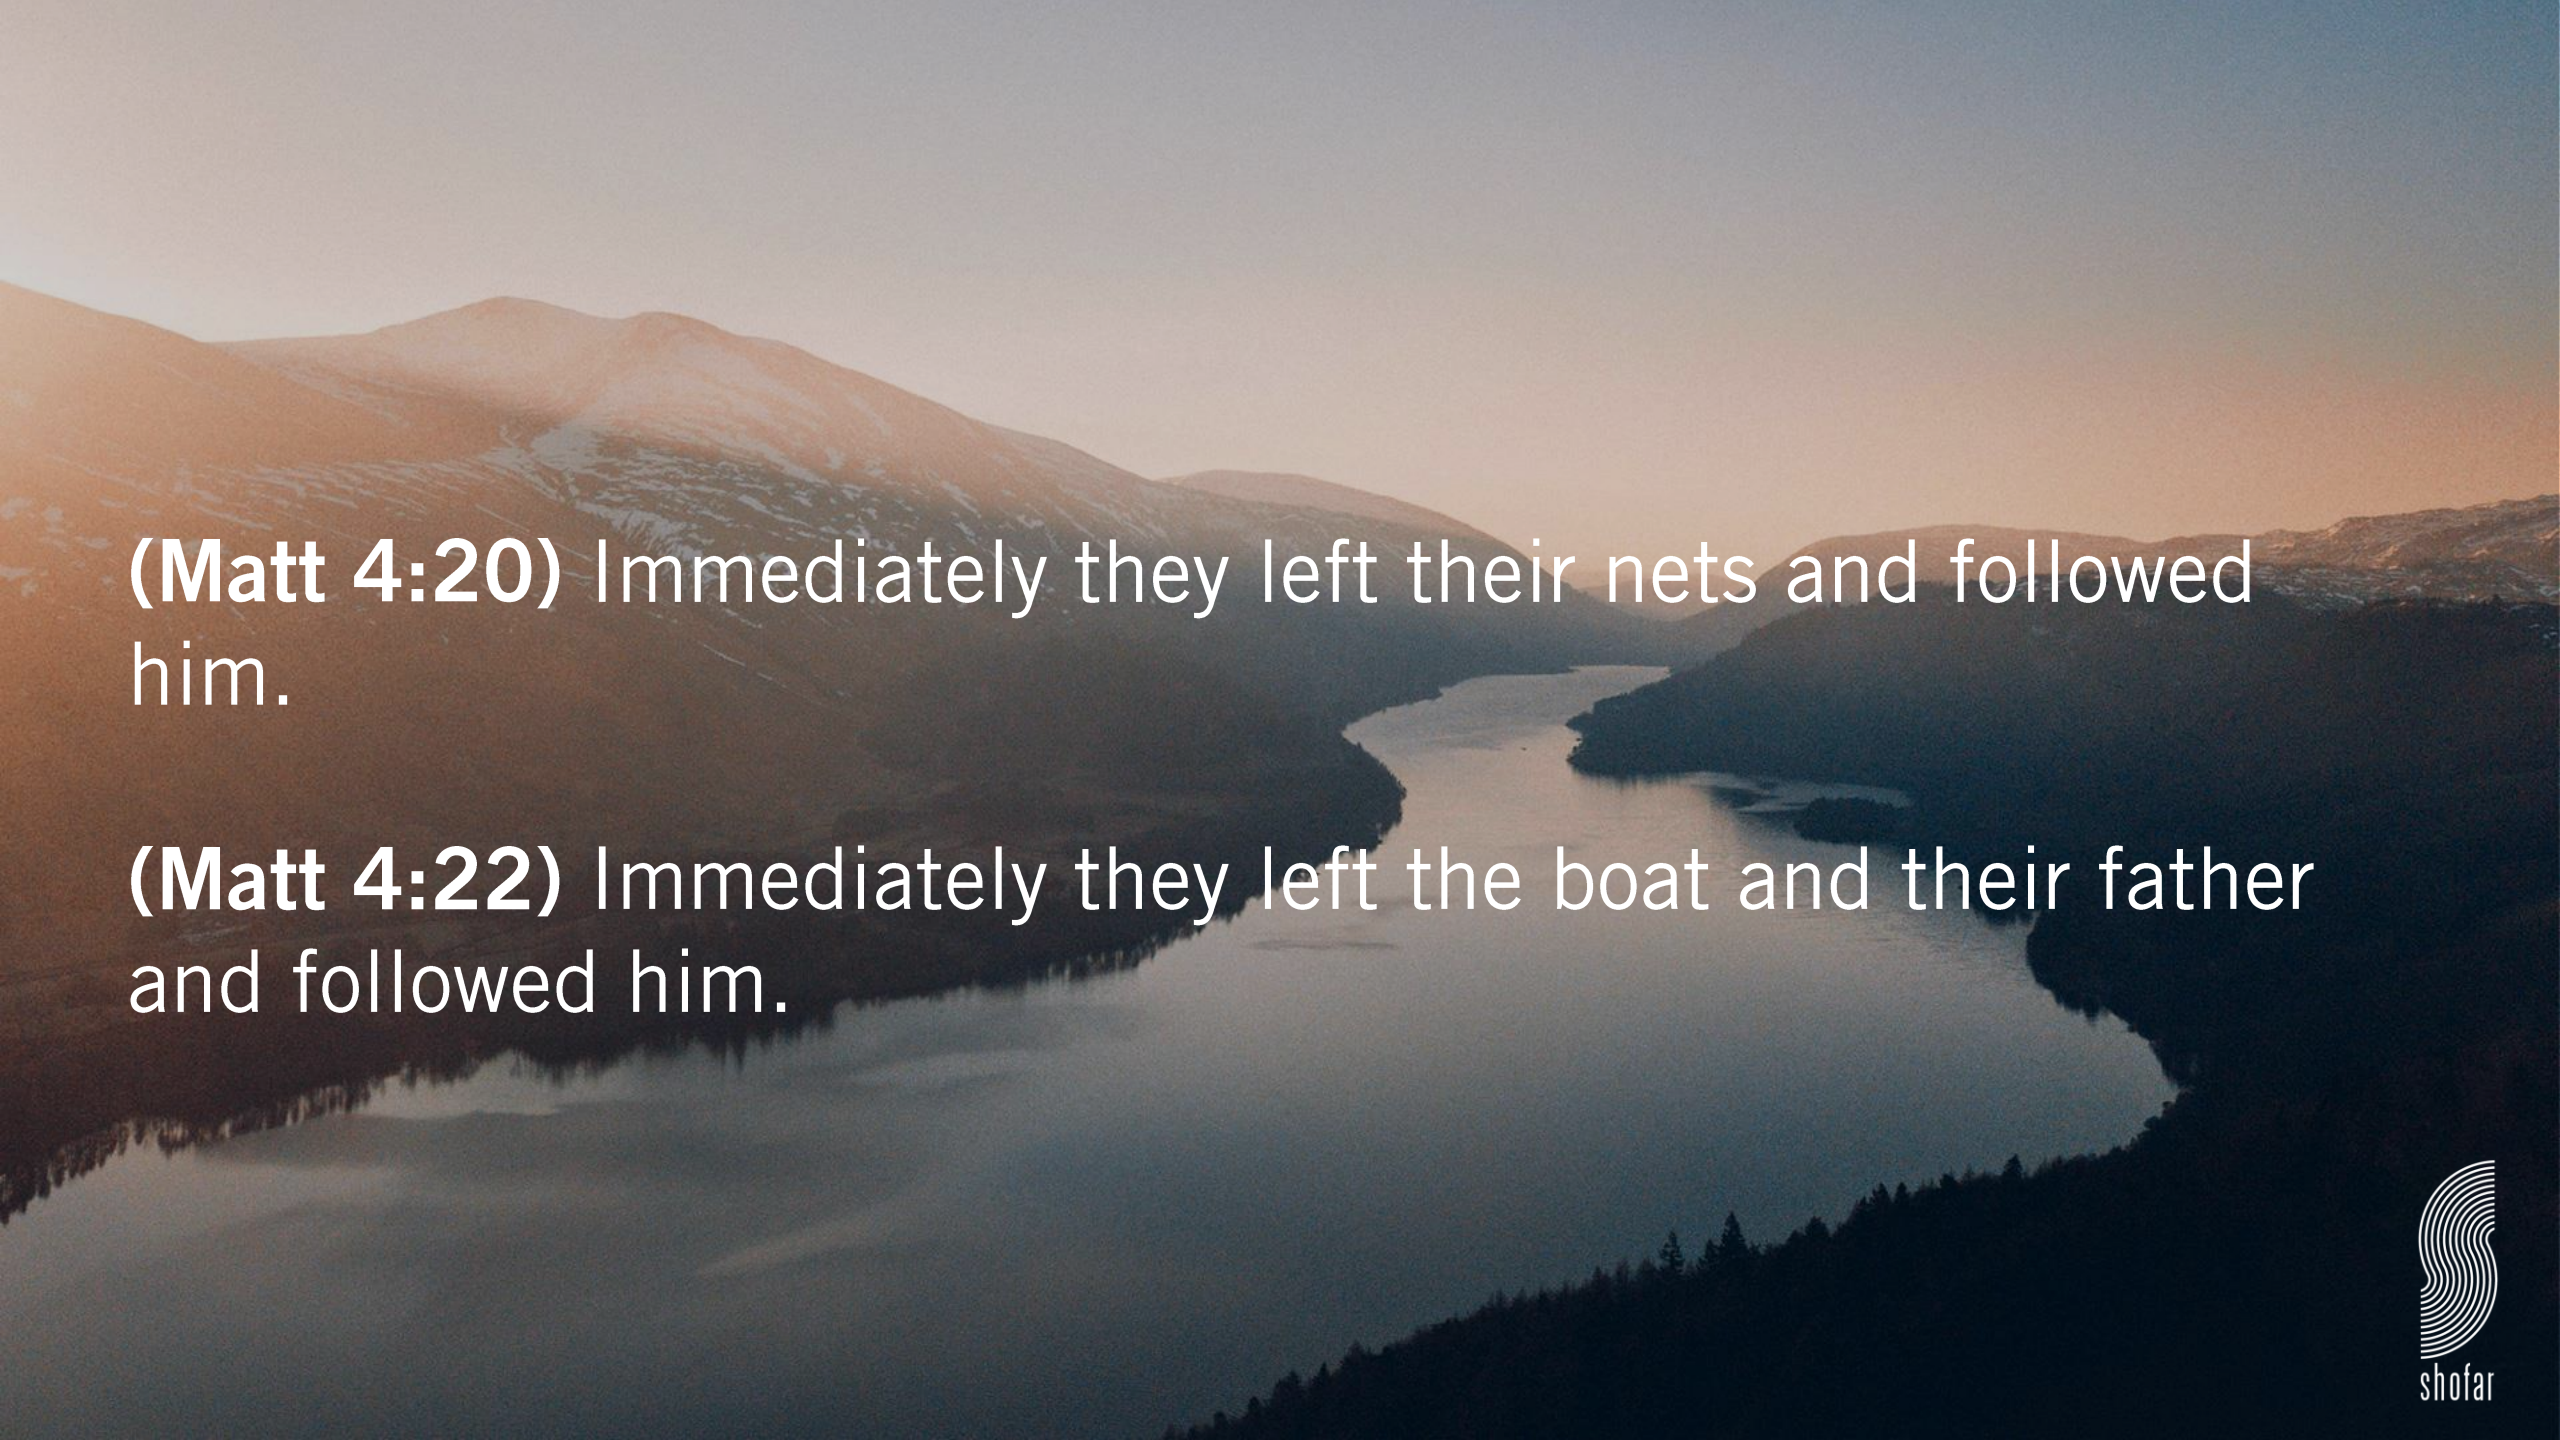

(Matt 4:19) And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

(Matt 4:20) Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

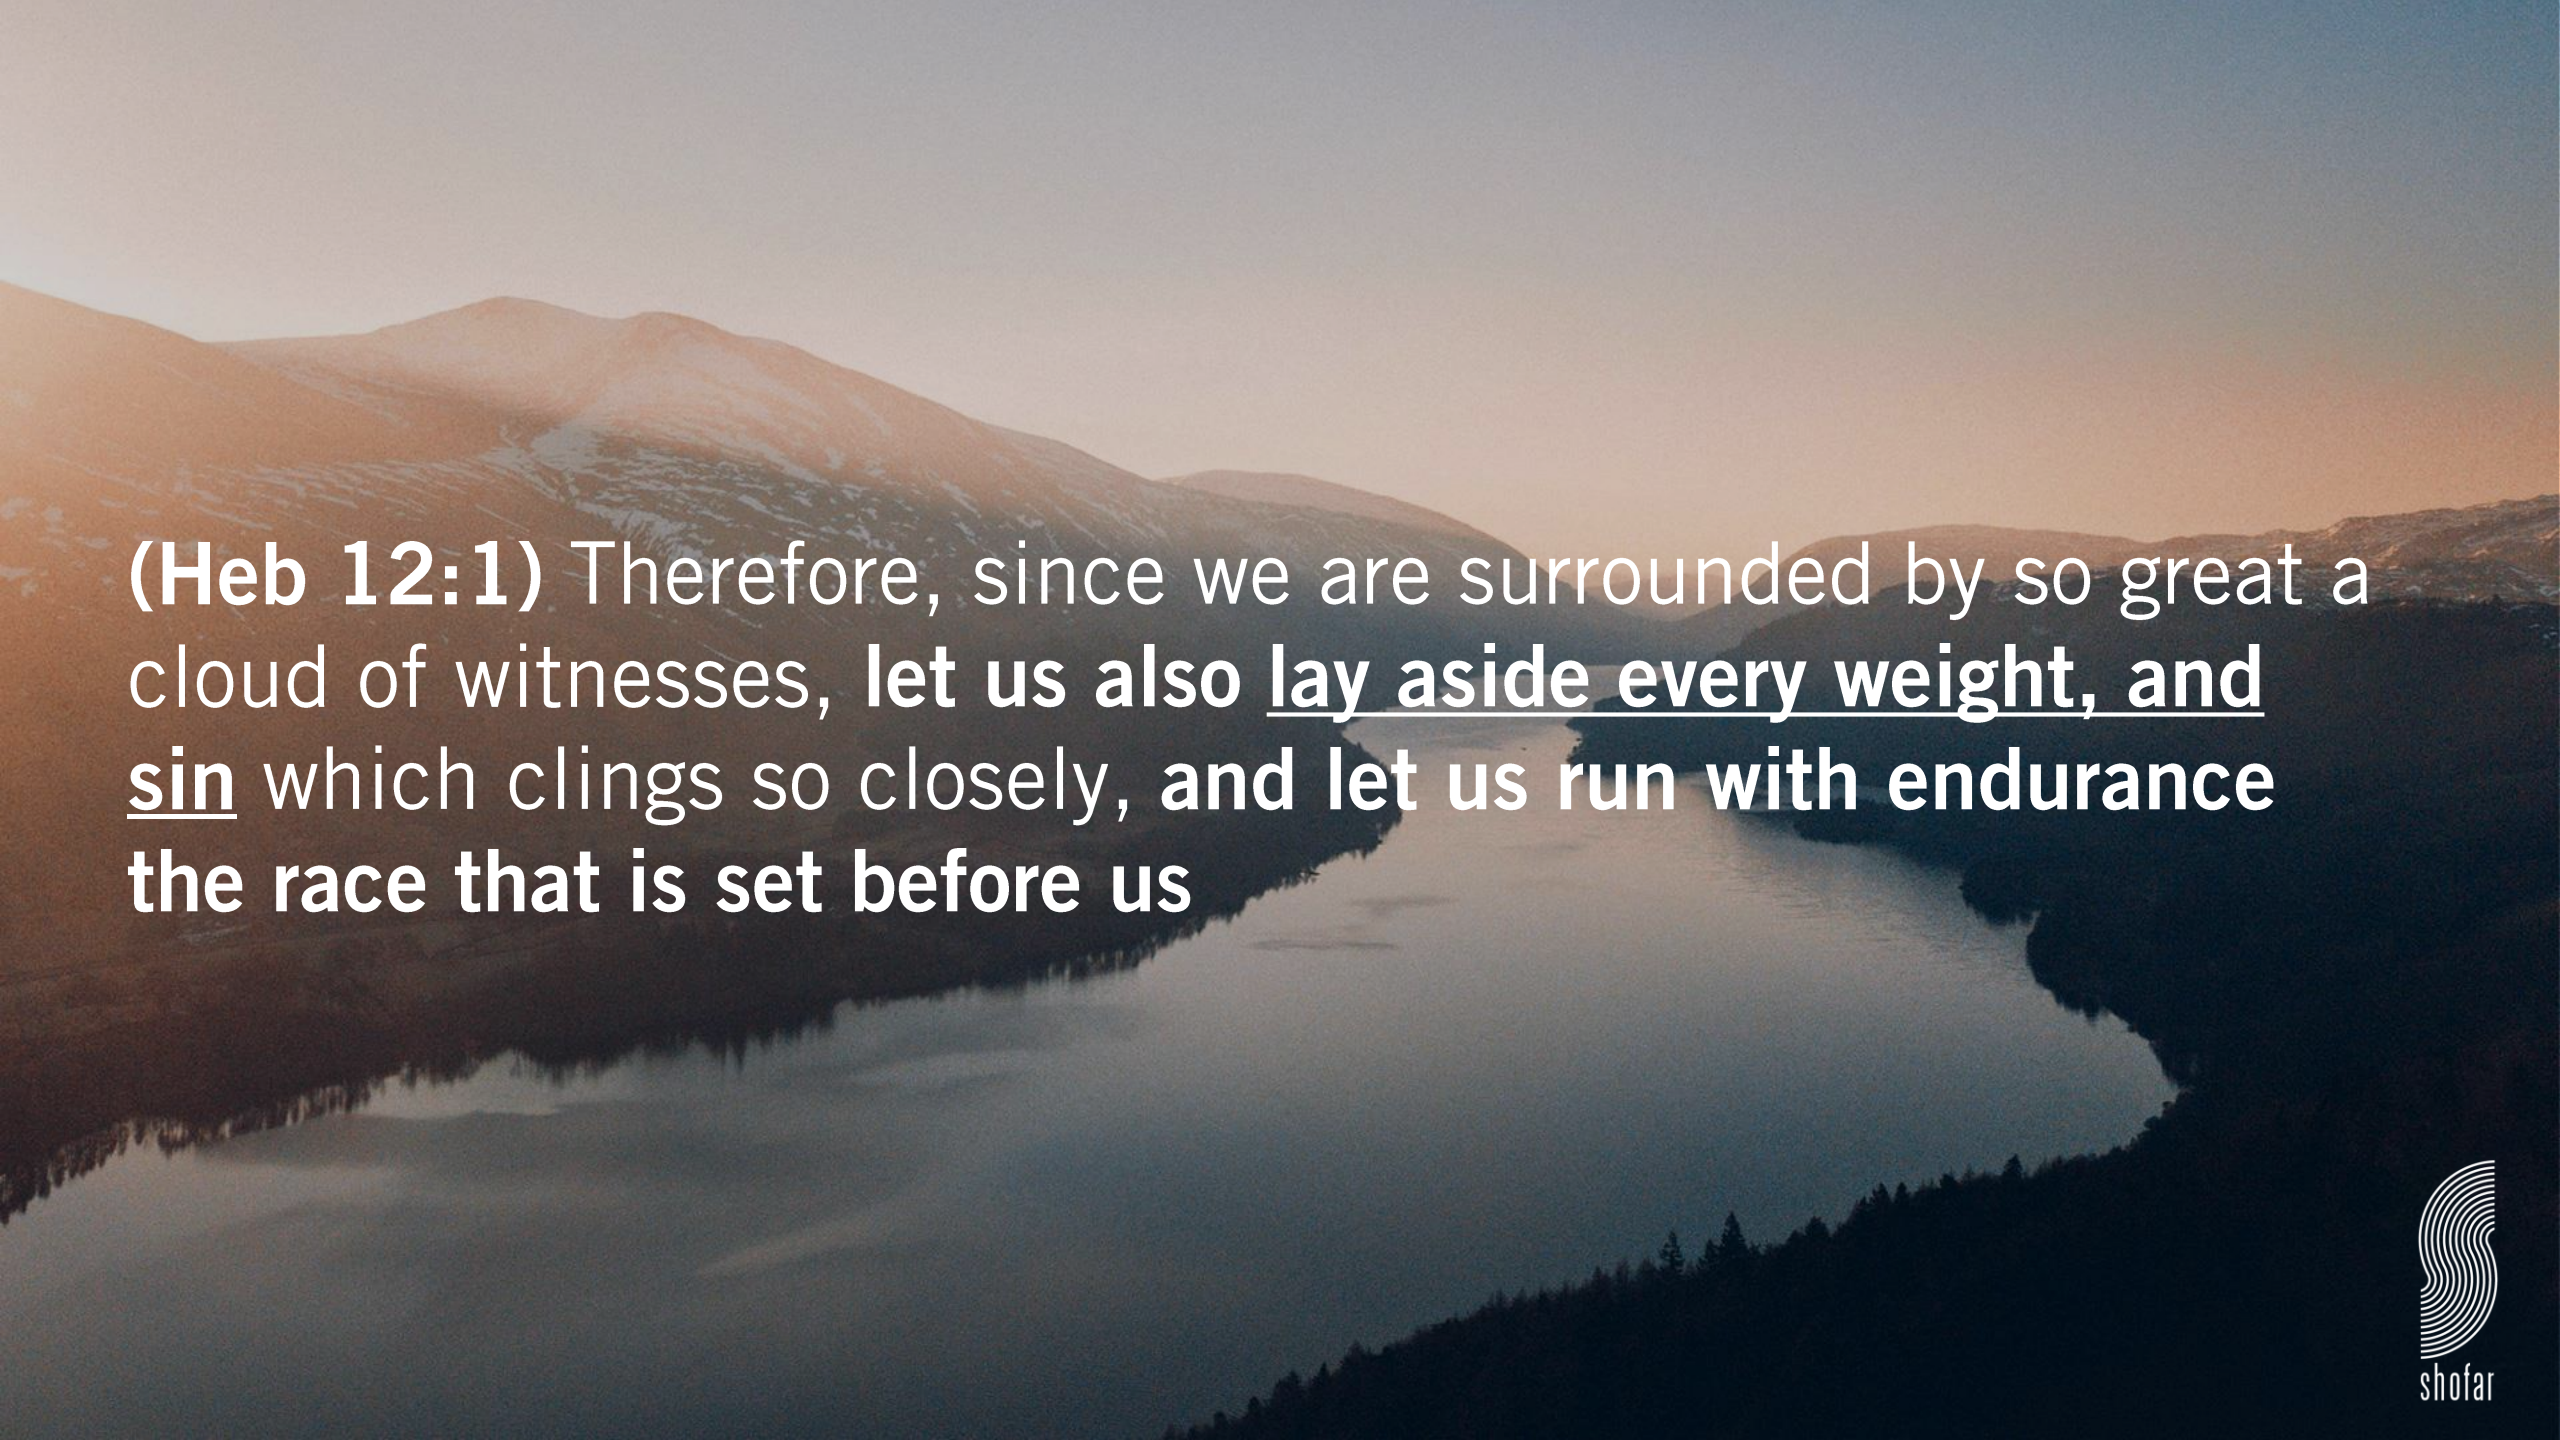

(Matt: 4:21) And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them.

(Matt 4:22) Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

(Matt 4:20) Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

(Matt 4:22) Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

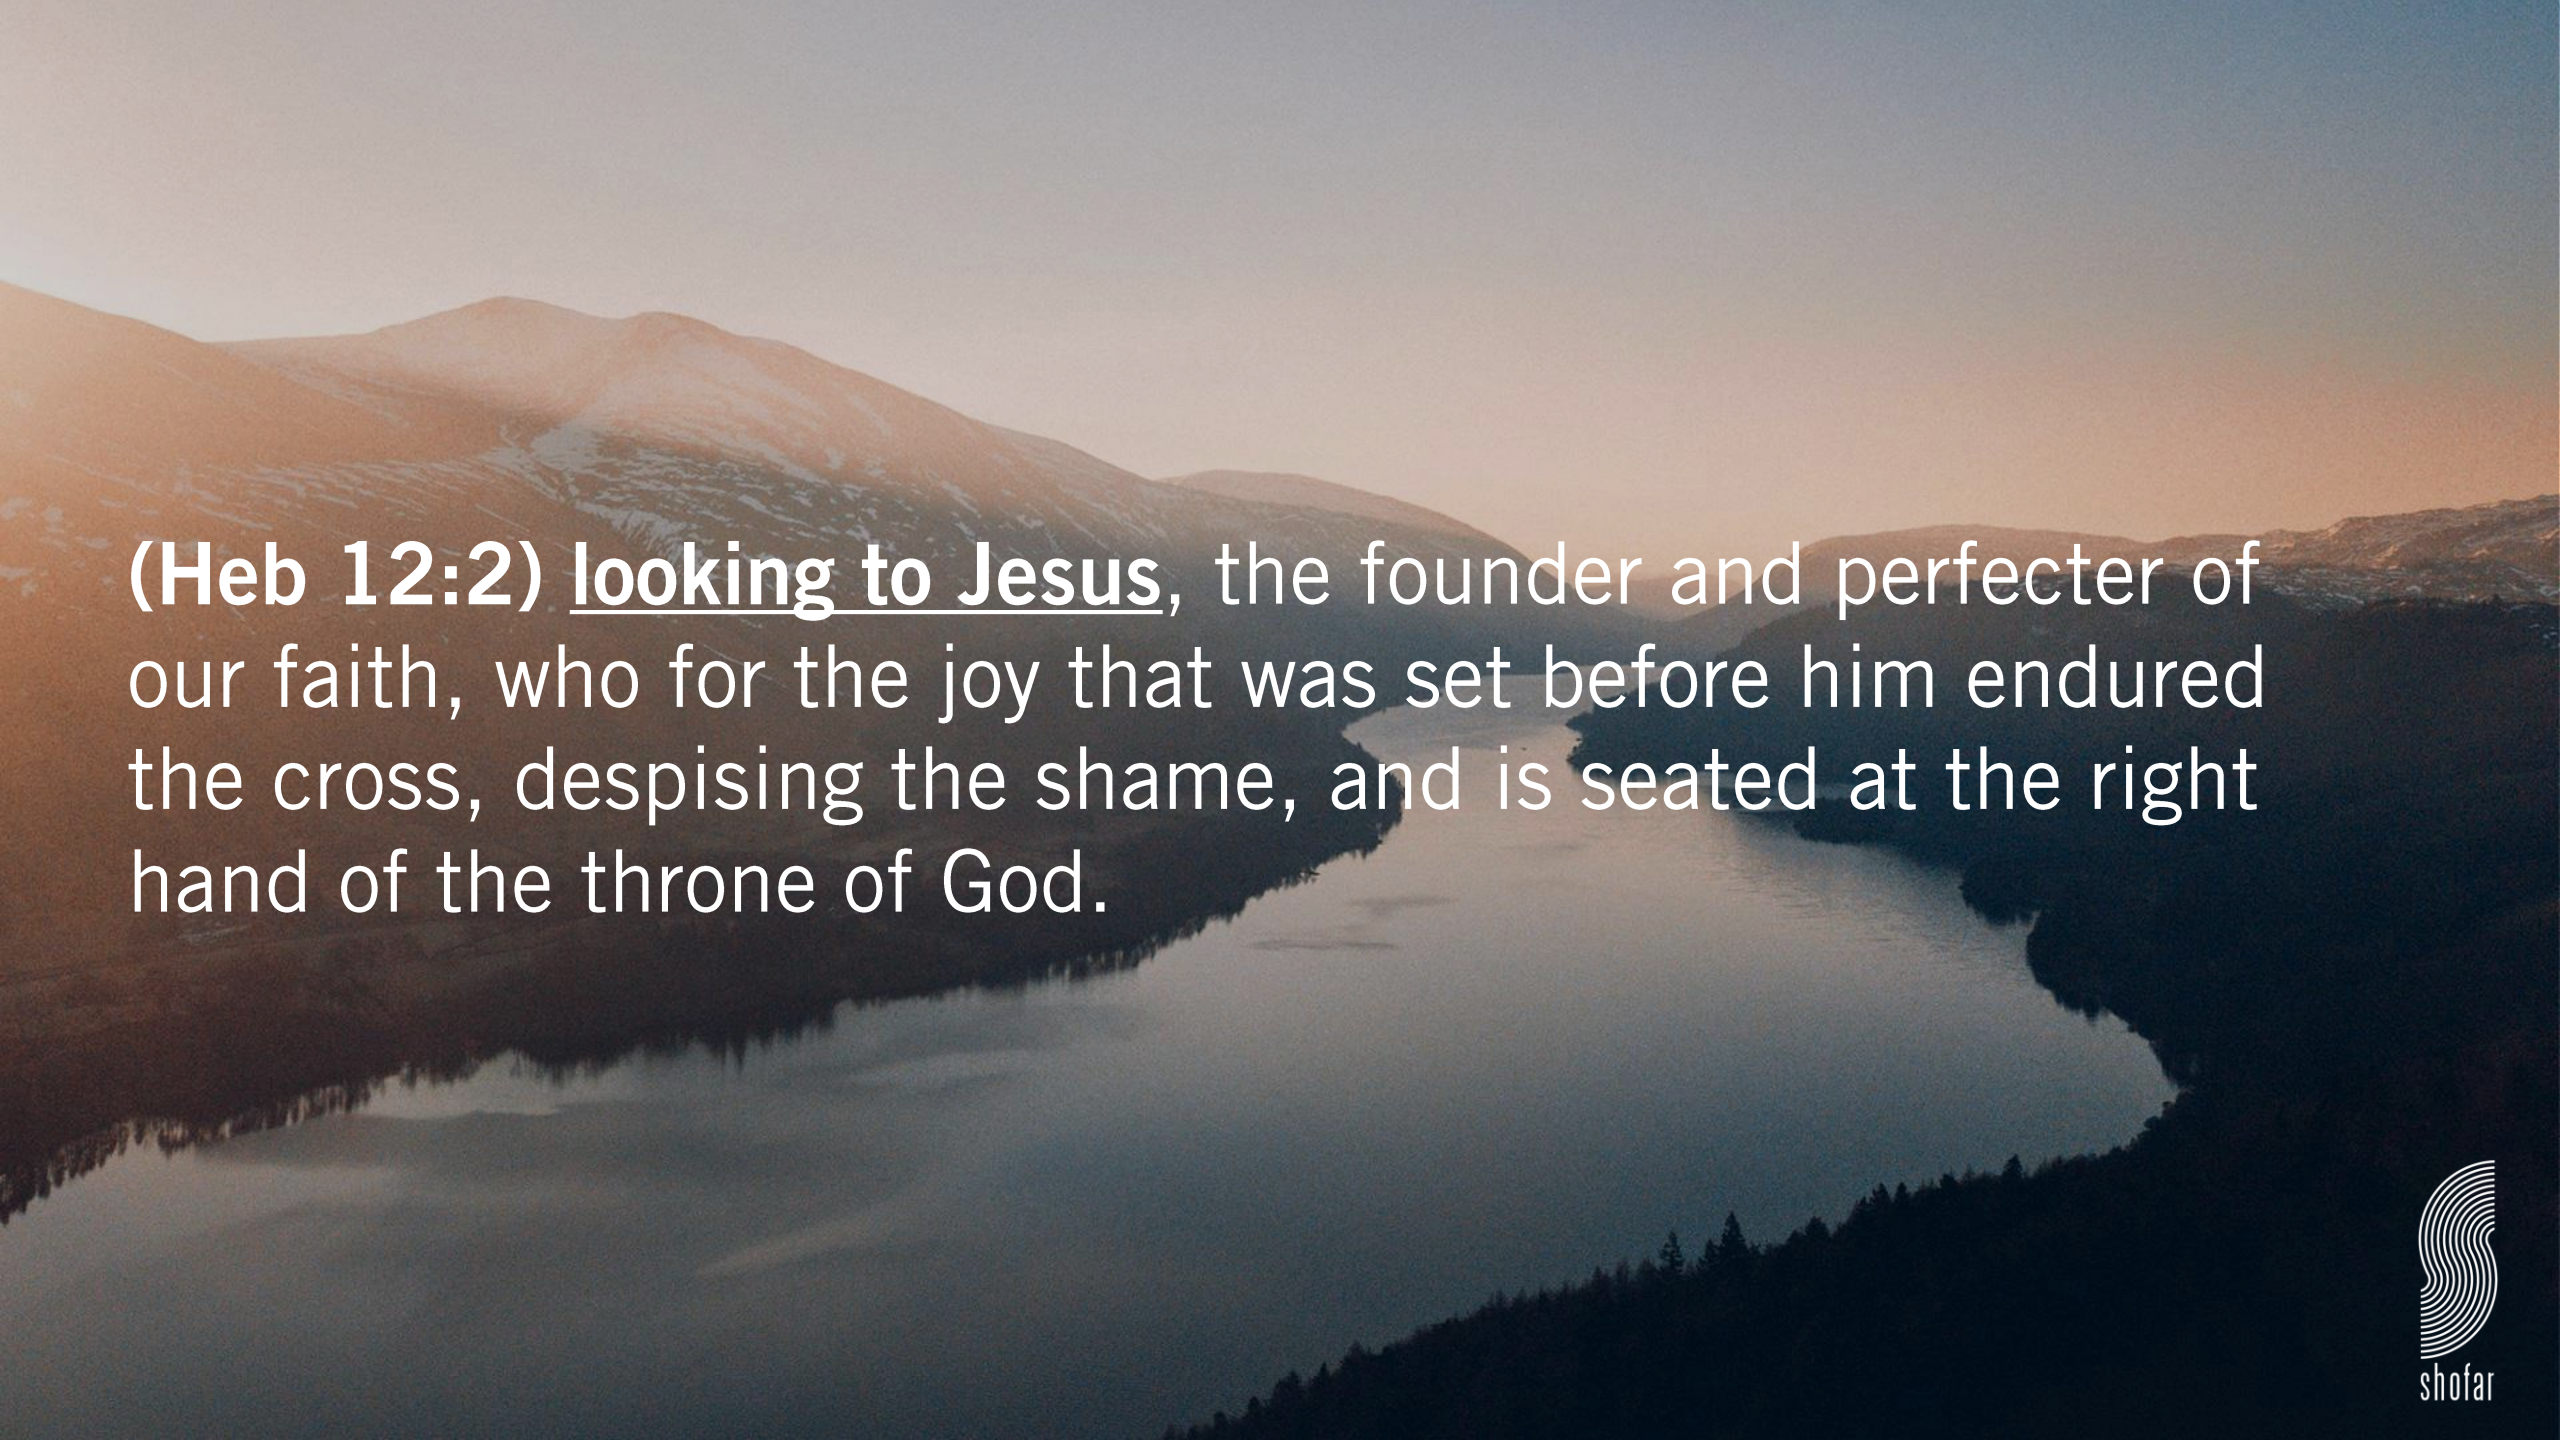

(Heb 12:1) Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us

Let Go to Take Hold

1. We have to be intentional in letting go.

(Matt 4:19) And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

(Heb 12:2) looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Let Go to Take Hold

1. We have to be intentional in letting go.
2. We need a Value and Vision of God to take hold of the things of God.

(Phil 3:12) Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own.
