The world, it seems, is much vainer than we could possibly have imagined - there were more than 24 billion selfies that were posted on Google's servers last year.

It said more than 200 million people upload images to the application each month who are responsible for an extraordinary 24 billion selfies.

An out of touch society

Selfie takers think other people's selfies are rather selfish, but rate their own selfies very highly.

A new focus

“the average millennial will take 25,700 in their lifetime; it is claimed that females aged 16 to 25 spend five hours taking selfies per week; and on average, 93 million selfies are taken worldwide each day.”

David Householder, seven secrets of a meaningful life

Selfie #1

John 5:19 Jesus was completely dependent upon His Father.

Am I?

What does the mirror of my prayer life say?

Selfie #2

John 5:20:2:24 Jesus trusted the Father's love for Him more than any human being's.

Do I?

What goes on in my heart when I don't get what I want?

Selfie #3

John 5:20 "Jesus imitated the Father.

Am I imitating Christ?

Who am I imitating? Who has taught me the greatest lessons?

Selfie #4

John 5:20 “Jesus had confidence re the future because He had confidence in the Father.

What/who determines how I feel about tomorrow?

Selfie #5

John 5:21 “Jesus had the Father’s mission – giving life and destroying death.

Am I on the Father’s mission?

Selfie #6

John 5:22-23 “Jesus was not in competition with the Father.

Where is pride standing in the way?

Selfie #7

John 5:30 “Jesus lived for His Father’s will.

Do I seek the Father’s will for family, calling, church, community?
