

The background of the slide is a composite image. On the left, there are several overlapping architectural blueprints. One blueprint at the top shows a 'FLOOR' plan with dimensions like '4'-9"', '10'-0"', and '5'-10"'. Another blueprint below it shows a 'SECOND FLOOR' plan with dimensions like '10'-0"', '21'-0"', and '10'-6"'. A third blueprint at the bottom shows a 'FIRST FLOOR' plan for 'STAIR N°2' with a 'SCALE 1/4" = 1'-0"' and a note 'FOR GROUND FLOOR, PLAN SEE DUG'. On the right, there is a blurred image of a modern building facade with a curved glass and metal structure and several circular lights.

1. The first step is to identify the problem or goal. This involves understanding the current situation and what needs to be achieved.

2. The second step is to gather information. This involves researching the problem and identifying the resources available.

3. The third step is to develop a plan. This involves identifying the steps that need to be taken to achieve the goal.

4. The fourth step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the plan into action and monitoring progress.

5. The fifth step is to evaluate the results. This involves assessing the outcomes of the plan and identifying any areas for improvement.

6. The sixth step is to reflect on the experience. This involves thinking about what was learned and how it can be applied in the future.

7. The seventh step is to share the results. This involves communicating the outcomes of the plan to others.

Dear Caitlin Jenner.....being a female, I have never felt brave or courageous or under pressure to pick out my shoes or dress. Courage as a female, is facing your days with a bald head and battle scars from cancer. Courage as a female is carrying a child for 9 mos that you weren't planning on having. Courage as a female is being Mom & Dad to a child while putting food on the table because you are all that child has. Courage as a female is busting your butt to make it in a man's world. Courage as a female is to learn to walk out after you have been beaten by someone who "loves" you. We don't play dress up to feel brave, we are brave in our raw, authentic selves. You will find the most brave women in this world do not dress in the finest fashions adorned by jewels and make-up. They carry crowns of grey hair, wrinkles, tired bodies and weathered hands. Learn the difference. Sincerely, a real woman.
