

my world

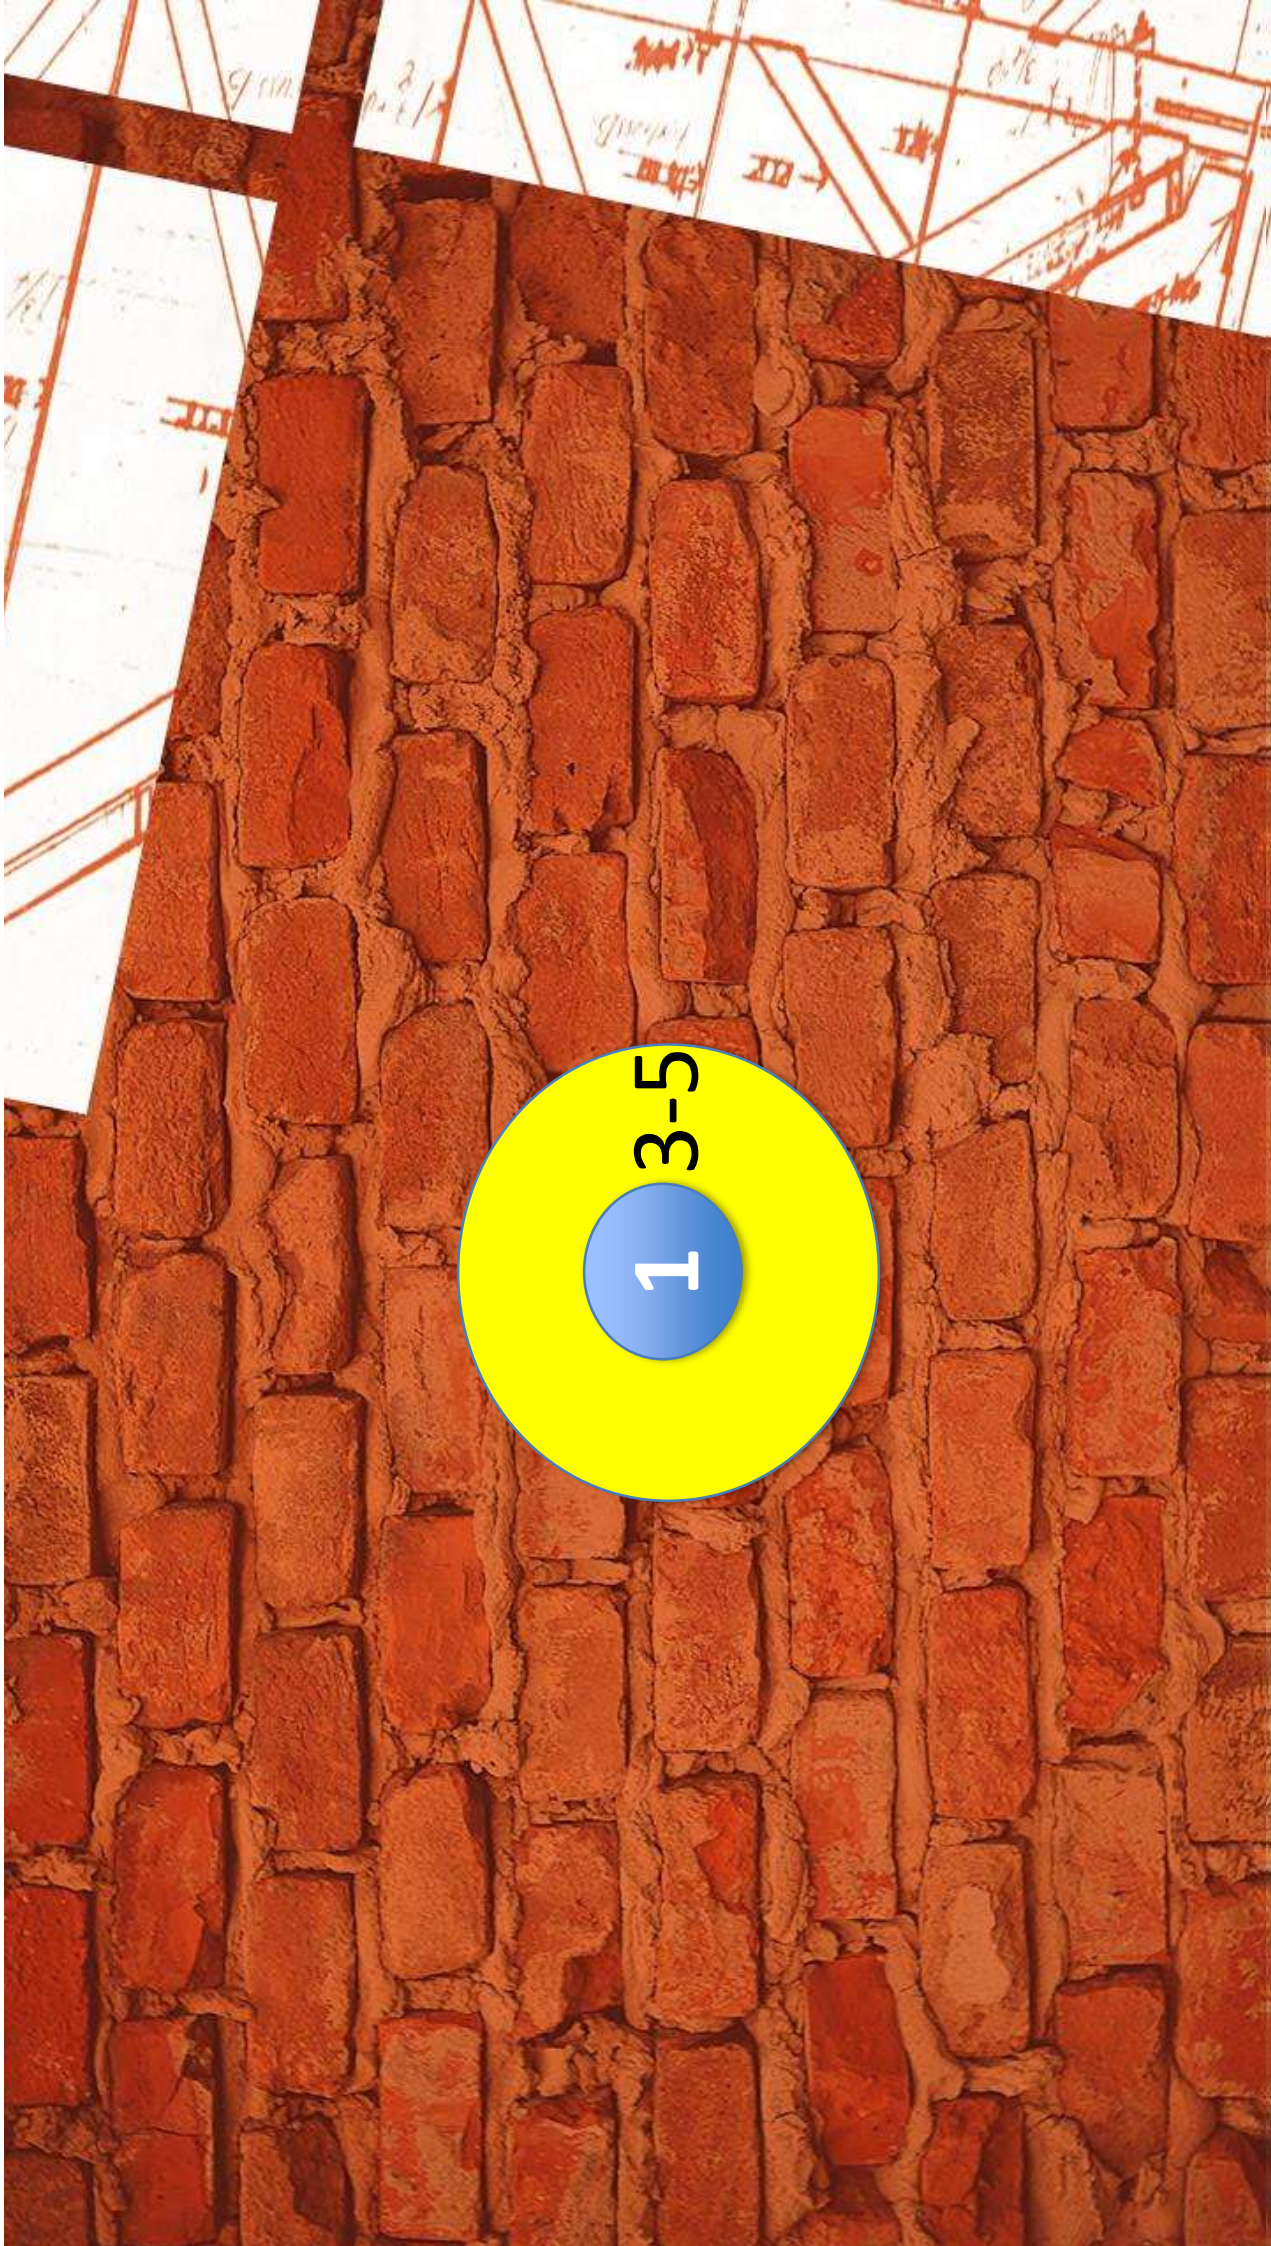

Derk Jan van der Veen

The background of the image is a close-up of a red brick wall. The bricks are arranged in a traditional pattern, with some mortar visible between them. In the upper right corner, there are several sheets of white paper with red lines and text, which appear to be architectural blueprints or technical drawings. The text is written in a stylized, possibly handwritten or printed font, and includes some numbers and letters. The overall lighting is warm, and the colors are dominated by the red of the bricks and the white of the paper.

It turns out that “the better quality relationships you have; the more likely you are to be happy”.

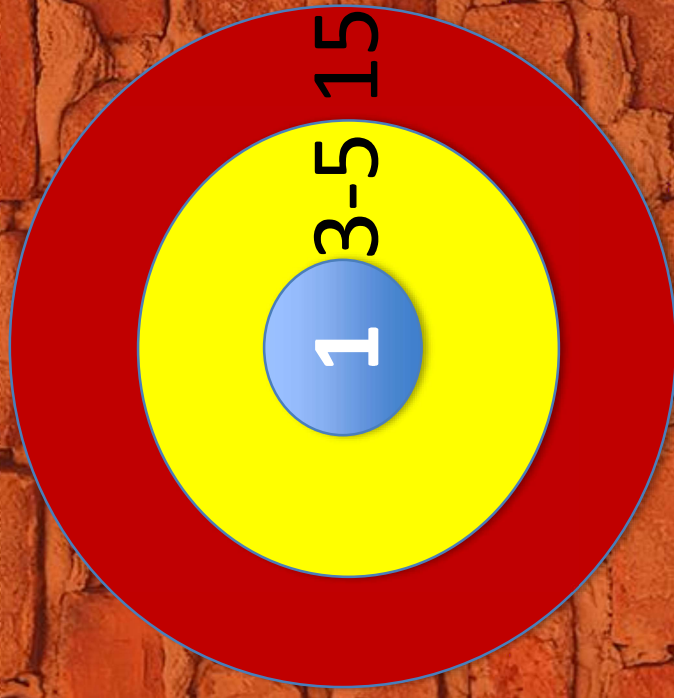

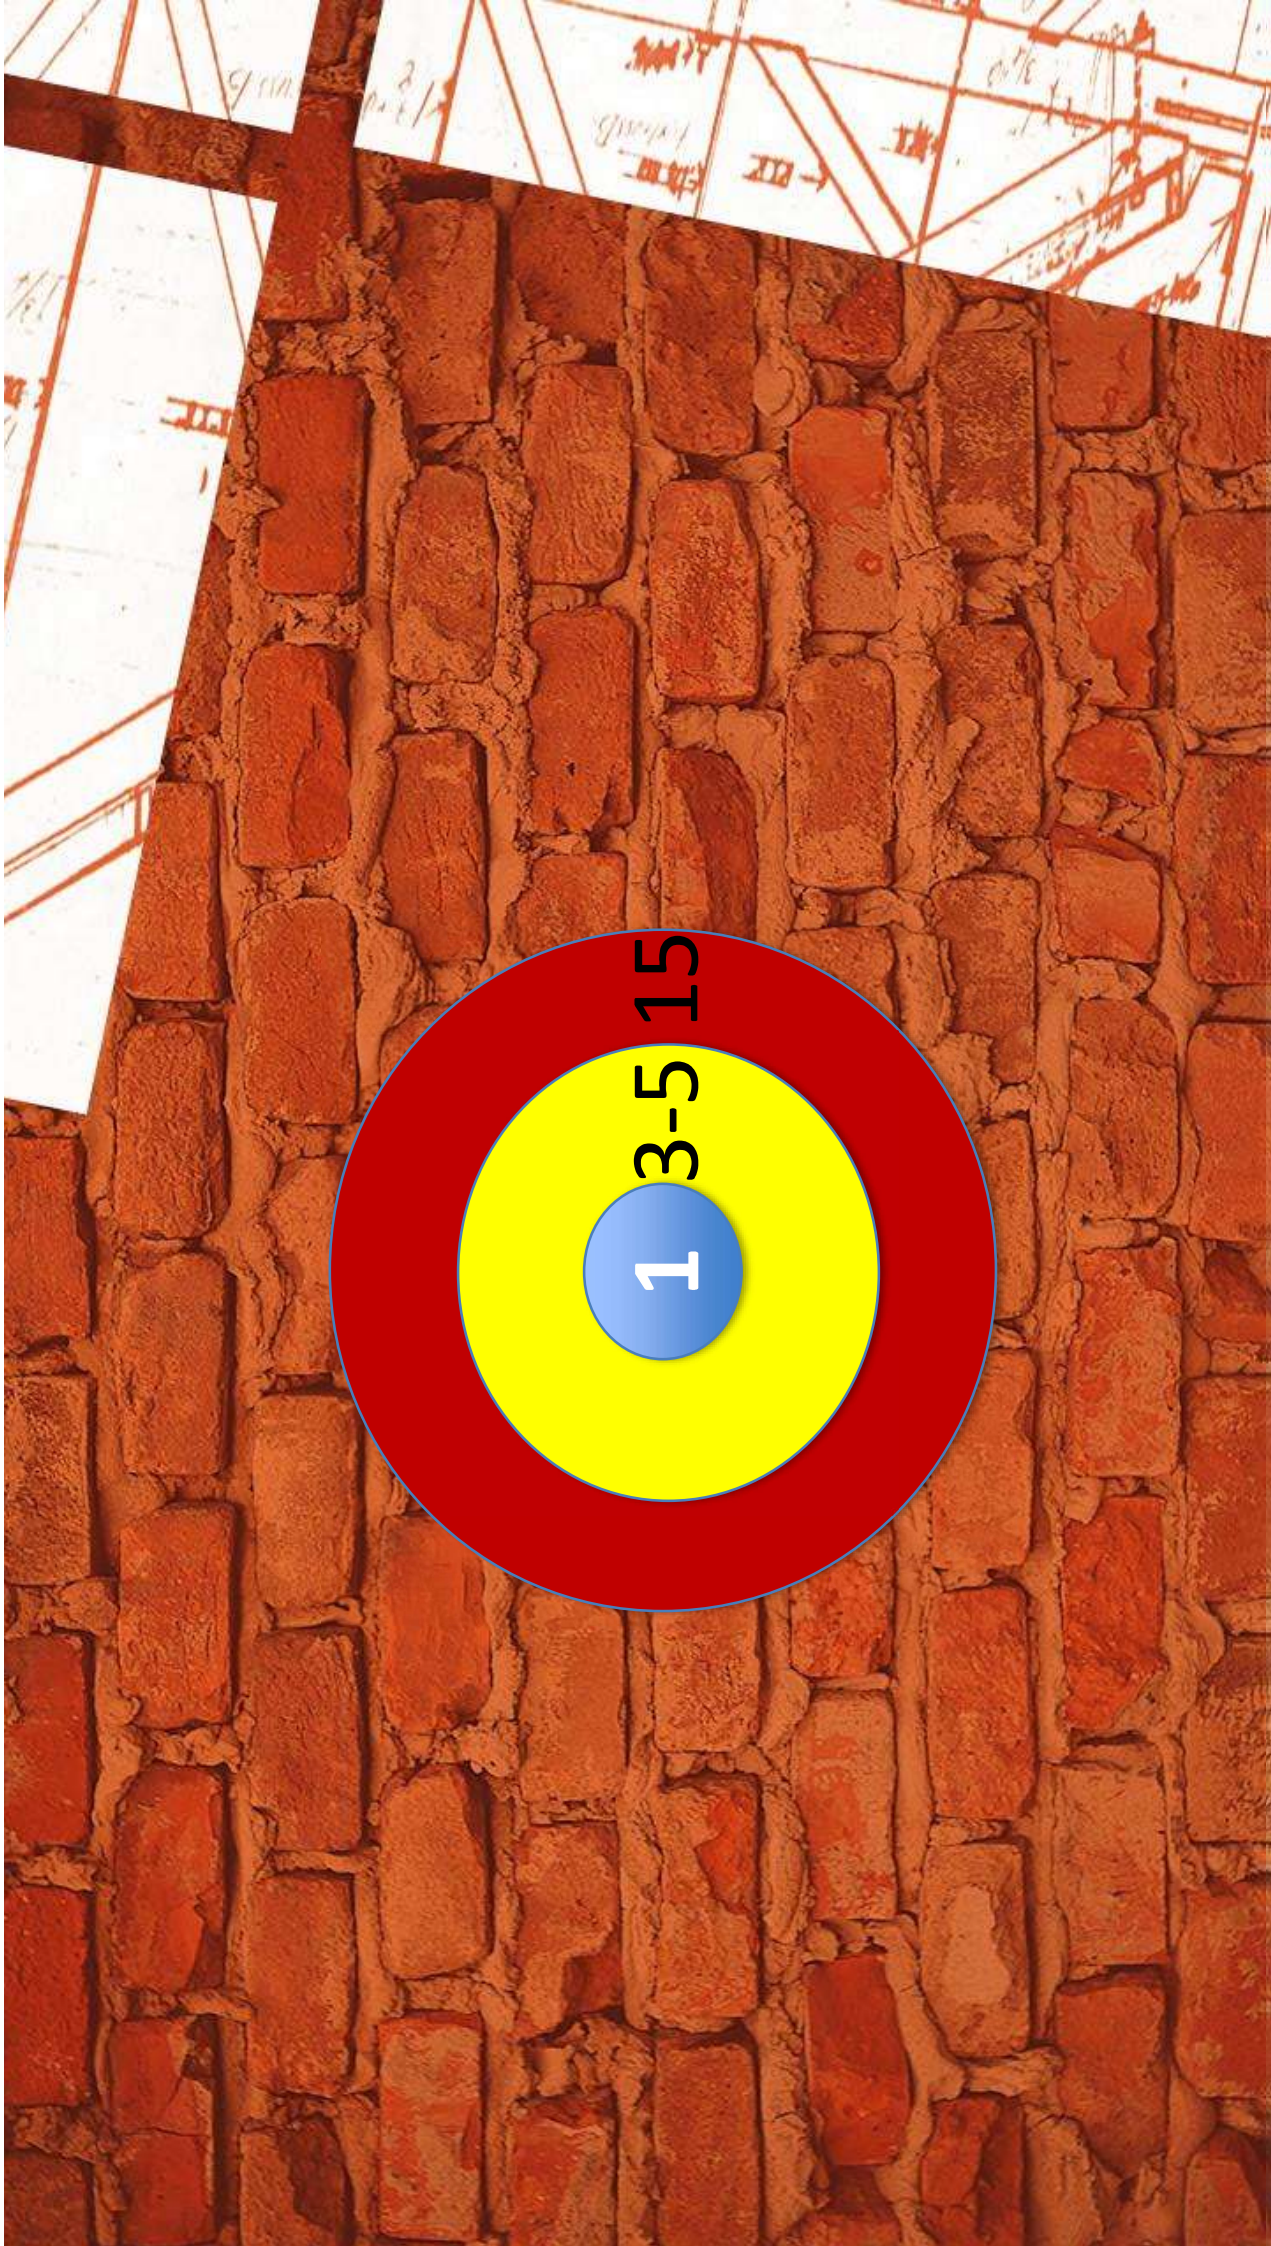

Therefore it’s good for your happiness to be a great friend to someone and to have a group of good friends supporting you.

A close-up photograph of a red brick wall. The bricks are laid in a traditional running bond pattern. In the upper right corner, a portion of a white architectural blueprint is visible, featuring red lines and some handwritten text. The text "There are no strangers here; only friends you haven't yet met." is superimposed over the center of the image in a white, sans-serif font.

“There are no strangers here;
only friends you haven’t yet met.”

John 12:31 (NKJV)

³¹ Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out.

1 John 5:19 (NKJV)

¹⁹ We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one.

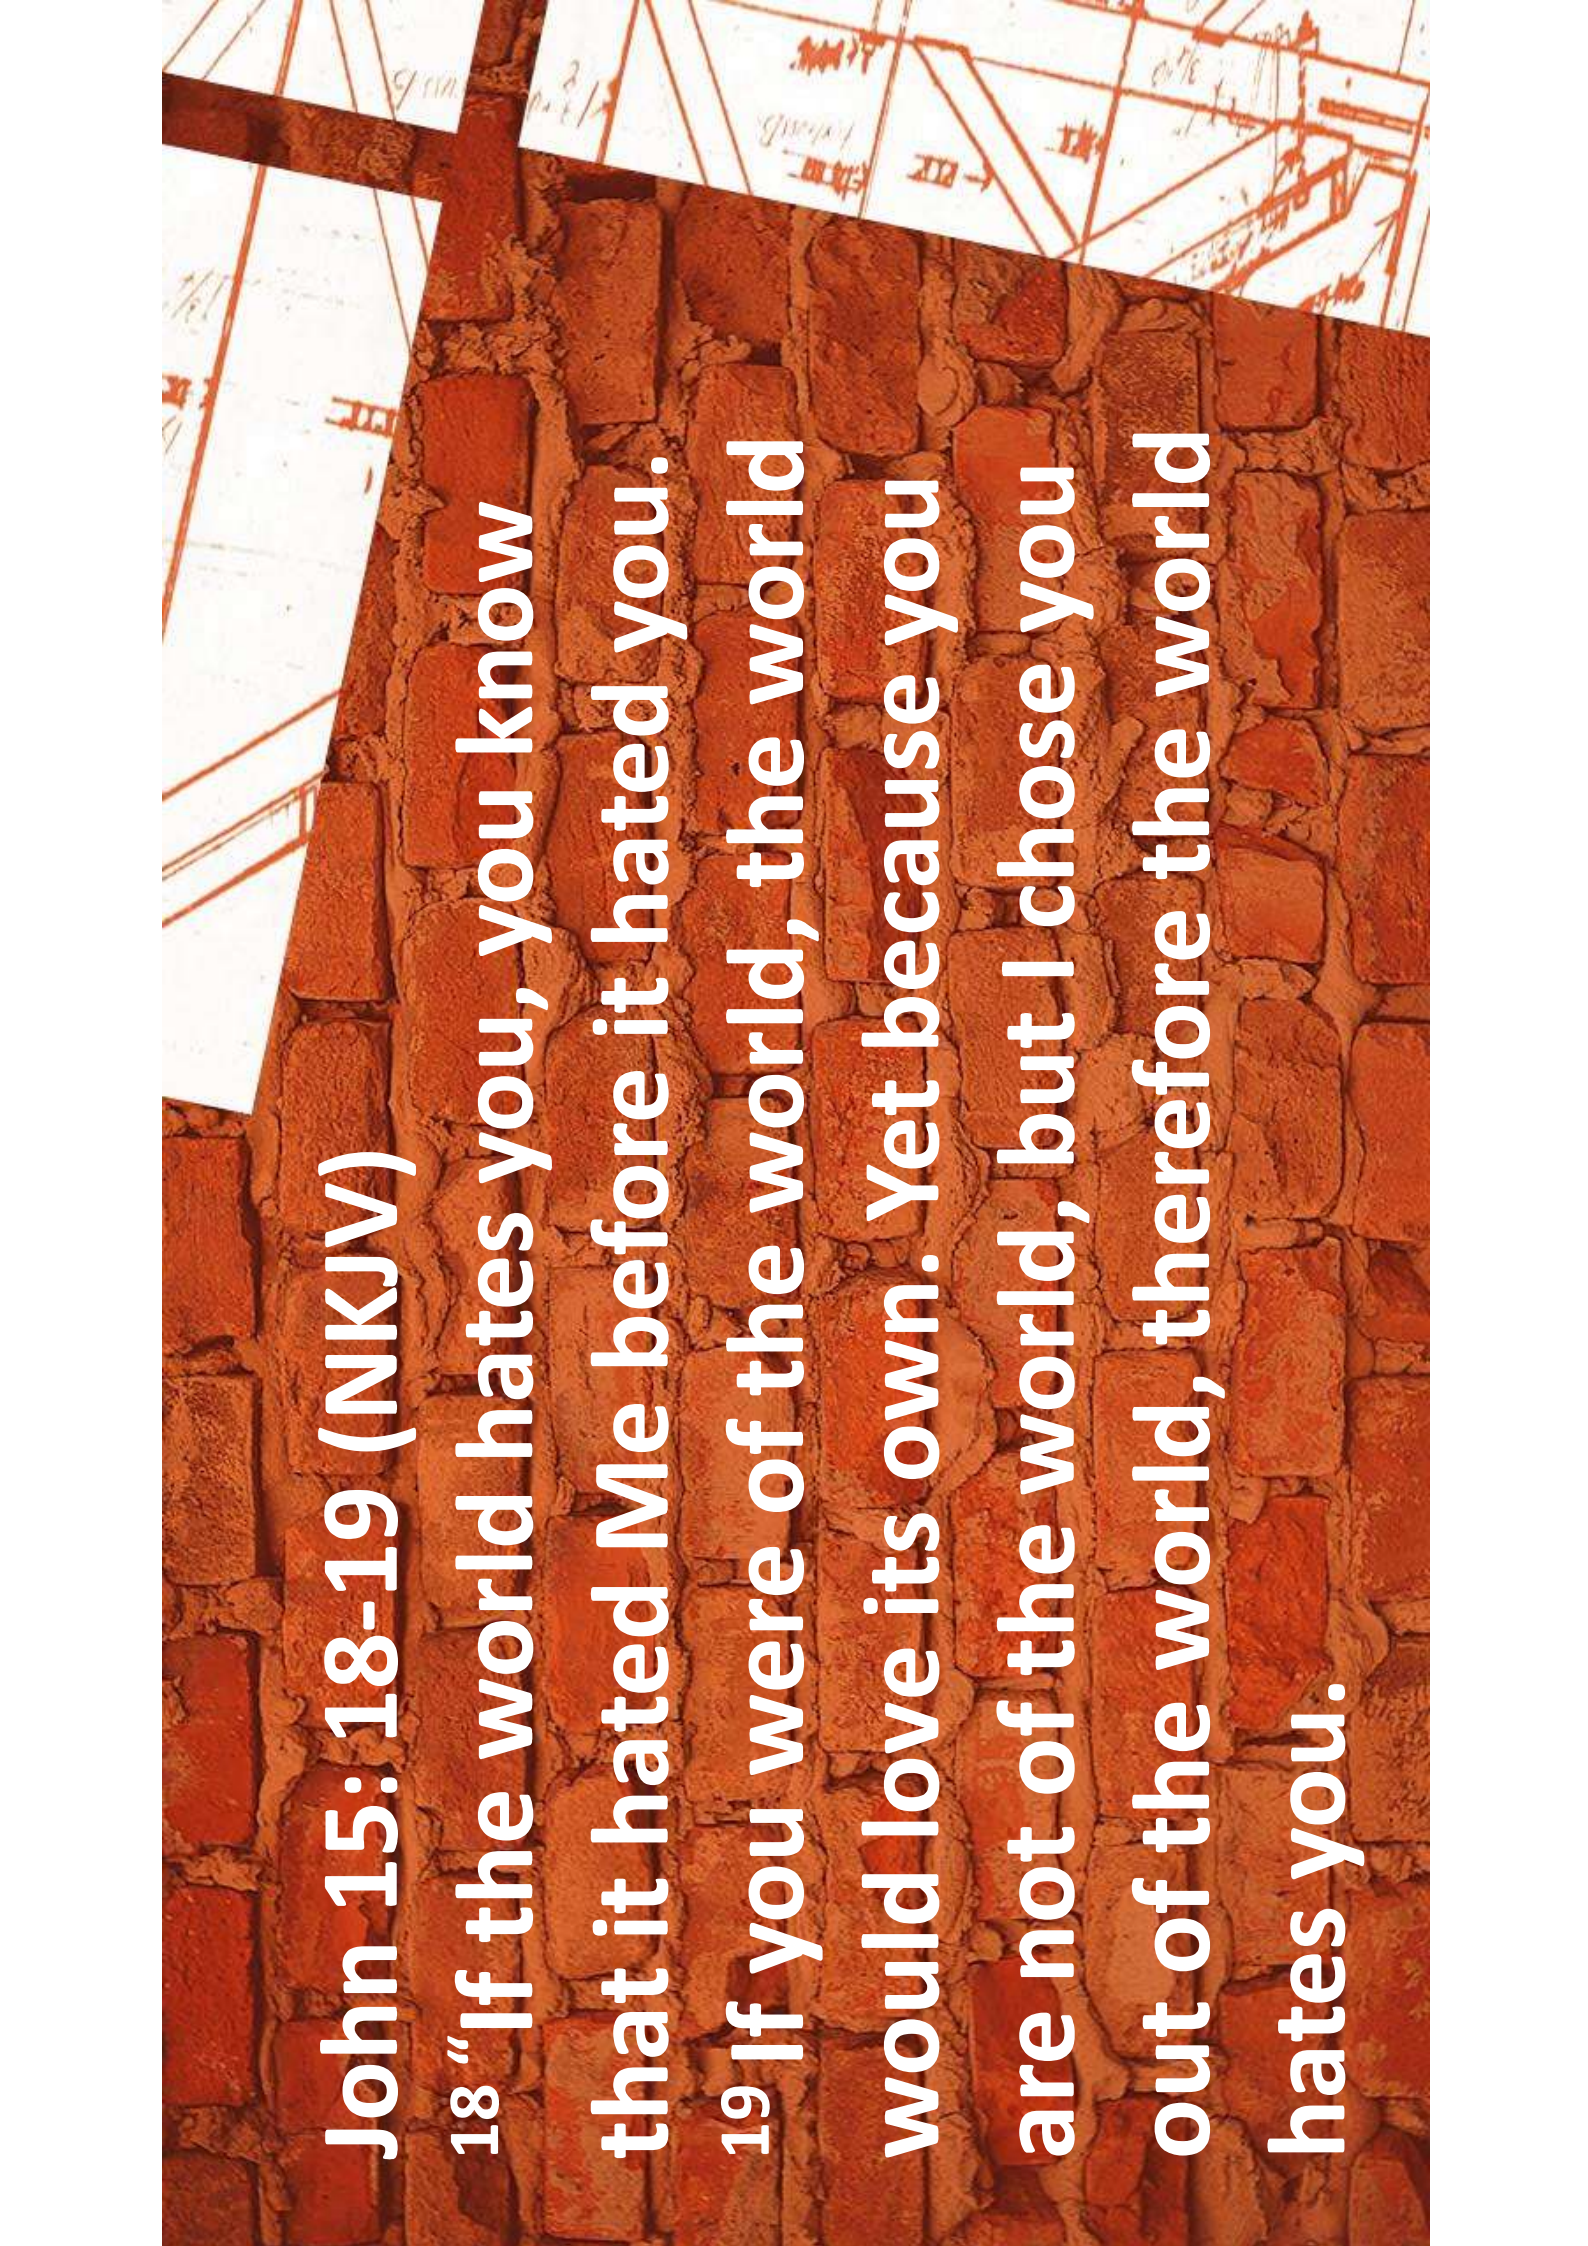

Matthew 6:24 (AMP)

²⁴ “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon [money, possessions, fame, status, or whatever is valued more than the Lord].

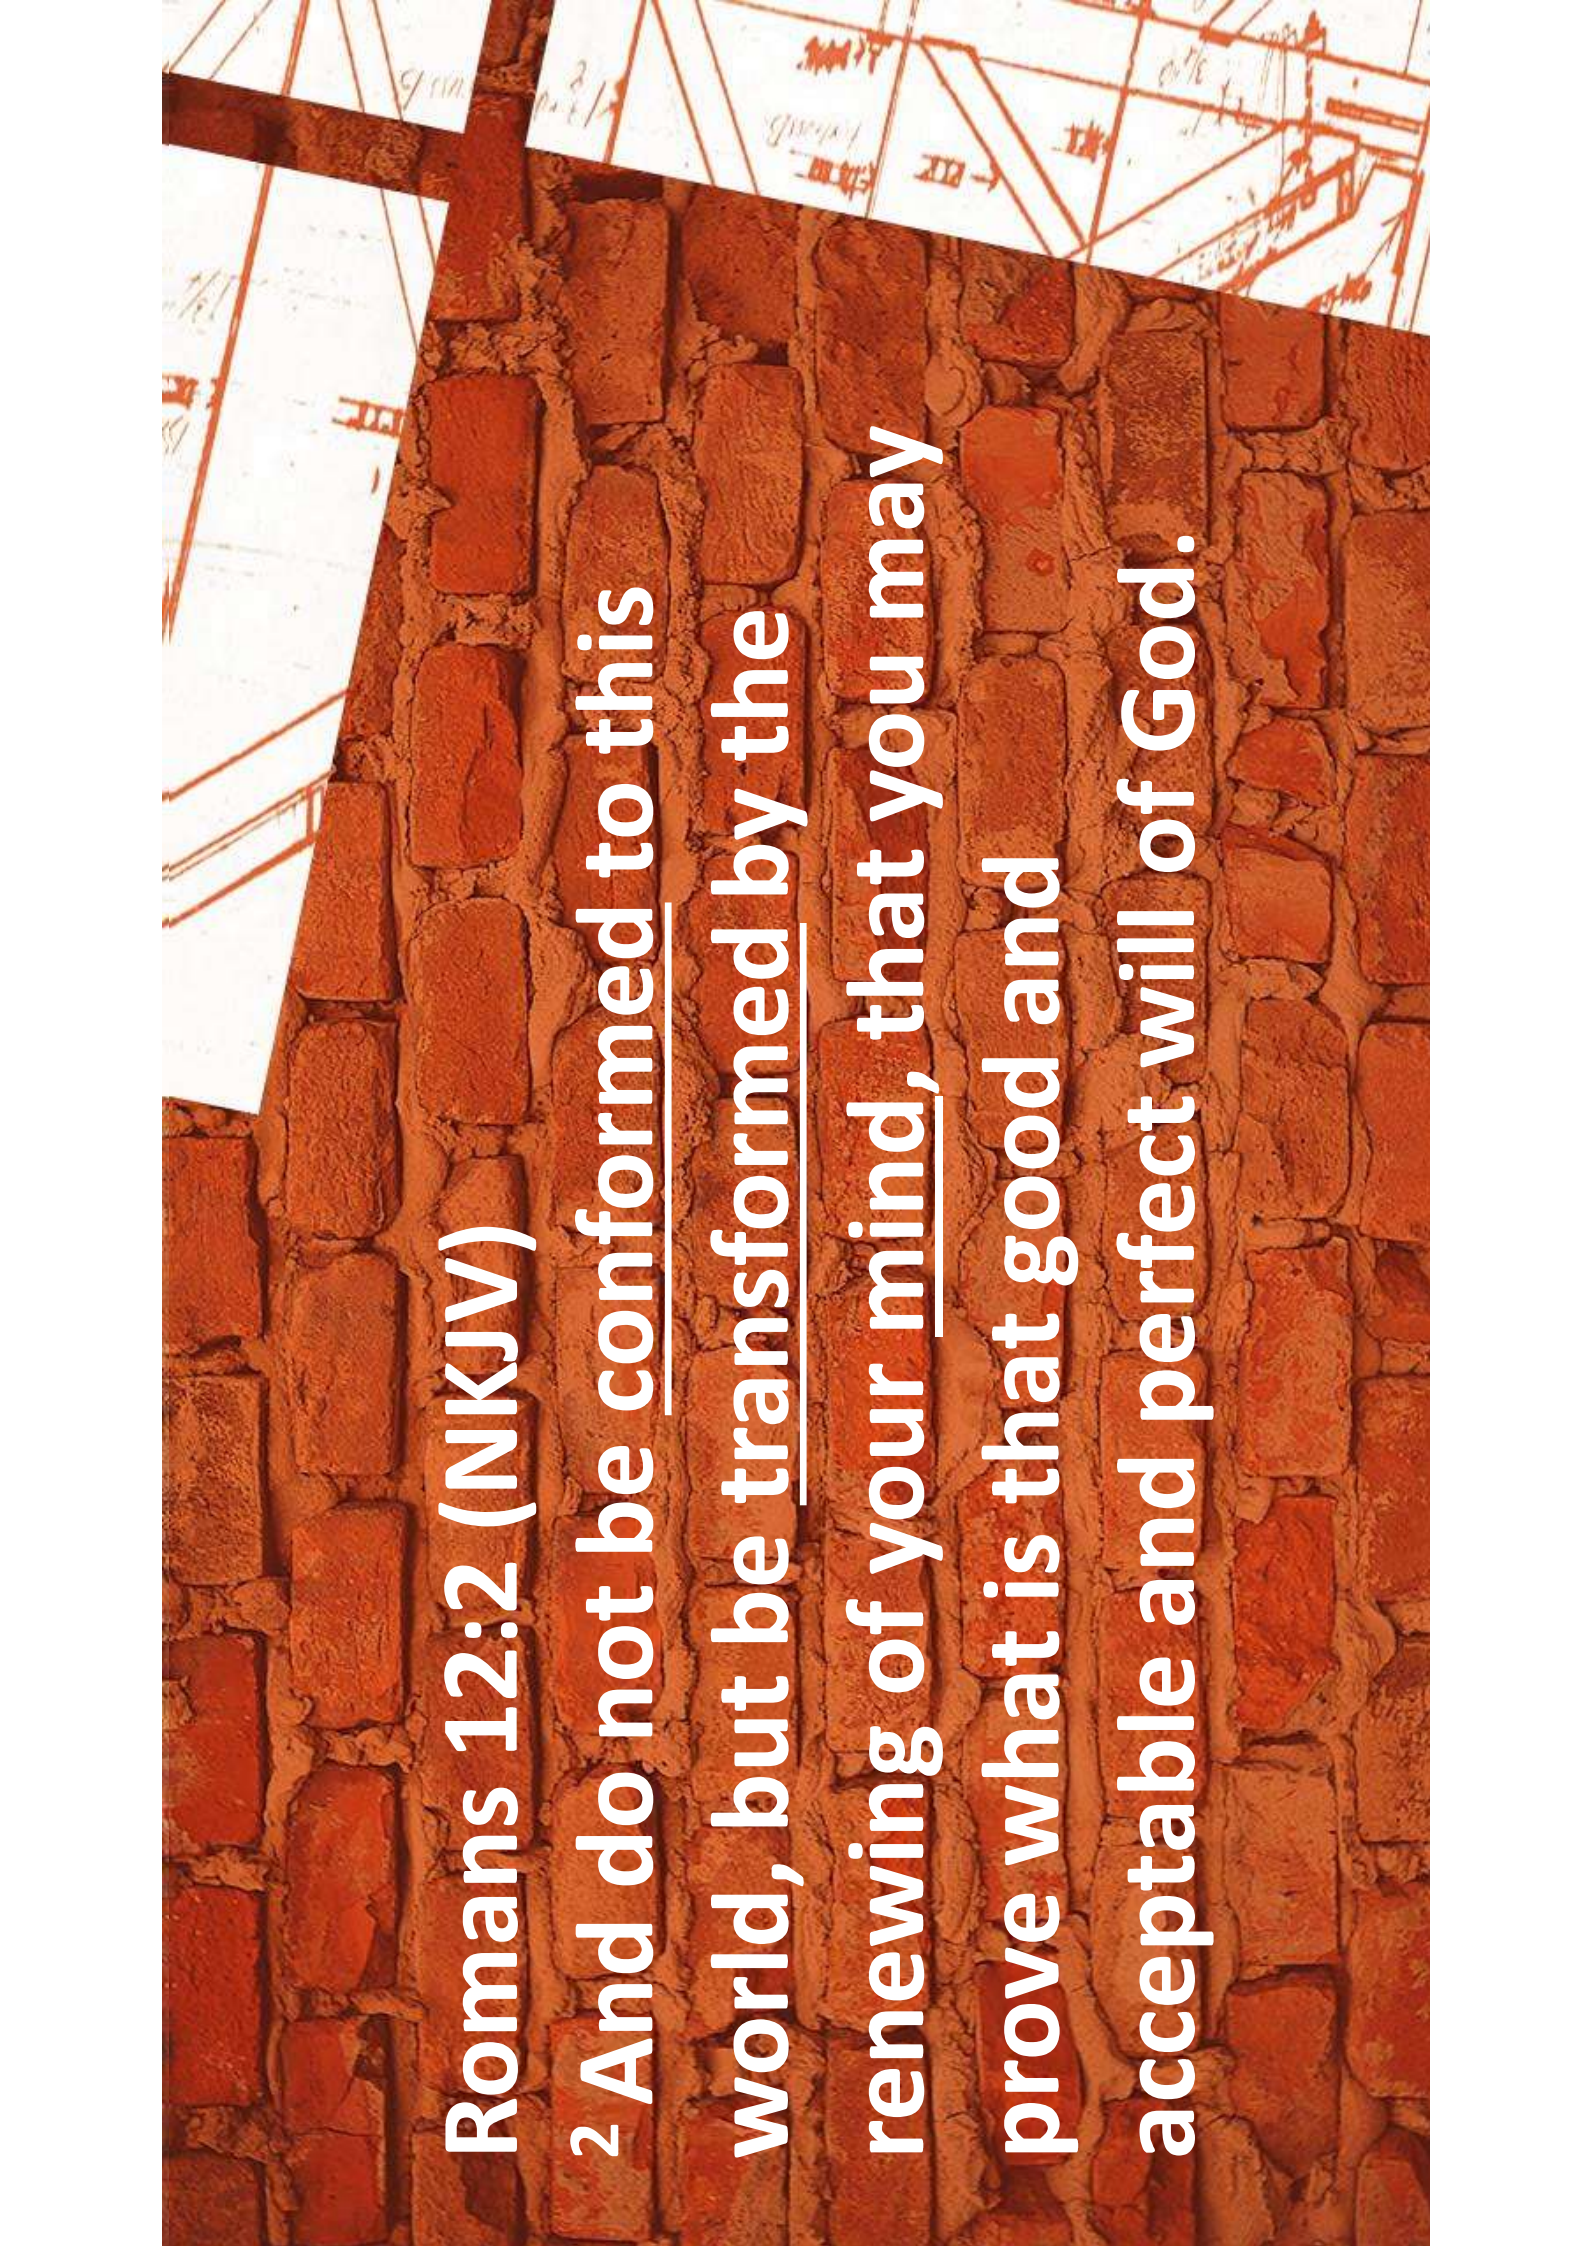

James 4:4 (AMP)

⁴ You adulteresses [disloyal sinners — flirting with the world and breaking your vow to God]! Do you not know that being the world's friend [that is, loving the things of the world] is being God's enemy? So whoever chooses to be a friend of the world
makes himself an enemy of God.

John 15: 18-19 (NKJV)

¹⁸ “If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you.
¹⁹ If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.

Romans 12:2 (NKJV)
2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

1 John 2: 15-17 (NKJV)

¹⁵ Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. ¹⁶ For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world. ¹⁷ And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

John 15: 14-15 (NKJV)

¹⁴ You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. ¹⁵ No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all things that I heard from My Father I have made known to you.
