

I am the living God

Renee van der Veen

A background image of a rocky landscape. In the foreground, there are large, light-colored rocks. In the middle ground, a river flows through a valley. The background features steep, rocky hillsides with some green vegetation. The sky is a pale, overcast blue.

What is resurrection?

Strong's Greek 386:

A rising again, resurrection.

From anistemi; a standing up again, i.e. a resurrection from death (its author), or a recovery.

⁴ if you seek it like silver and search for it as
for hidden treasures,
⁵ then you will understand the fear of the LORD
and find the knowledge of God.
⁶ For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth
come knowledge and understanding;
⁷ he stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
he is a shield to those who walk in integrity,

Proverbs 2: 4 -7 (ESV)

The background image shows a rugged, rocky terrain. In the foreground, there are large, light-colored, irregularly shaped rocks. A narrow, light-colored path or stream bed winds through the rocks, leading towards the background. On the right side of the path, there is a dense, green, bushy plant. The overall scene is outdoors, with a clear sky visible in the upper part of the frame. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image, in a white, sans-serif font.

¹⁰ The reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord is the beginning (the chief and choice part) of Wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight and understanding.

Proverbs 9: 10 (AMPC)

Resurrection power:

¹⁵ [God] disarmed the principalities and powers that were ranged against us and made a bold display and public example of them, in triumphing over them in Him and in it [the cross].

Colossians 2: 15 (AMPC)

¹⁹ and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power ²⁰ which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places,

Ephesians 1: 19-20 (NKJV)

A photograph of a rocky landscape. In the foreground, there are several large, light-colored, irregularly shaped rocks. To the right, a large, dense green bush or small tree stands out against the lighter background. The background shows more rocks and a pale, overcast sky. The overall tone is somewhat somber and contemplative.

Celebrating My death and My resurrection
- why did Jesus die?

Celebrating My death and My resurrection
- why did Jesus die?

⁸ But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Romans 5: 8 (NKJV)

A photograph of a rocky landscape with a path leading through a valley. The path is made of light-colored rocks and is flanked by green bushes and trees. The background shows a steep, rocky hillside under a clear sky.

¹ What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? ² Certainly not! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it?

Romans 6: 1-2 (NKJV)

¹⁶ For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

John 3: 16 (NKJV)

How does God do this?

- For what purpose?
- Why does God do this?
- When does this happen?
- But

Sunday: the first day of the week.

¹⁹ I also pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God's power for us who believe him. This is the same mighty power ²⁰ that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honor at God's right hand in the heavenly realms.

Ephesians 1: 19-20 (NLT)

A photograph of a rocky landscape, likely a canyon or a dry riverbed. The foreground is filled with large, light-colored, irregularly shaped rocks. In the background, steep, reddish-brown cliffs rise on either side, forming a narrow passage. A small, dark green bush is visible on the right side of the path. The sky is a pale, overcast grey.

Full circle:

- I am the living God.

The fullness of Me: the Trinity
Uncomprehendable
Uncontainable
Indestructible, for ever lasting.
Living, with such love and compassion towards
My creation.
Indescribable. So enormous that no one can or will be able to grasp the fullness of Me.
I am alive and active.
