Introduction

Genesis 25:29-31 (NIV)

29 Once when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the open country, famished. ... 31 Jacob replied, “First sell me your birthright.”

Genesis 27:19 (NIV)

19 Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may give me your blessing.”

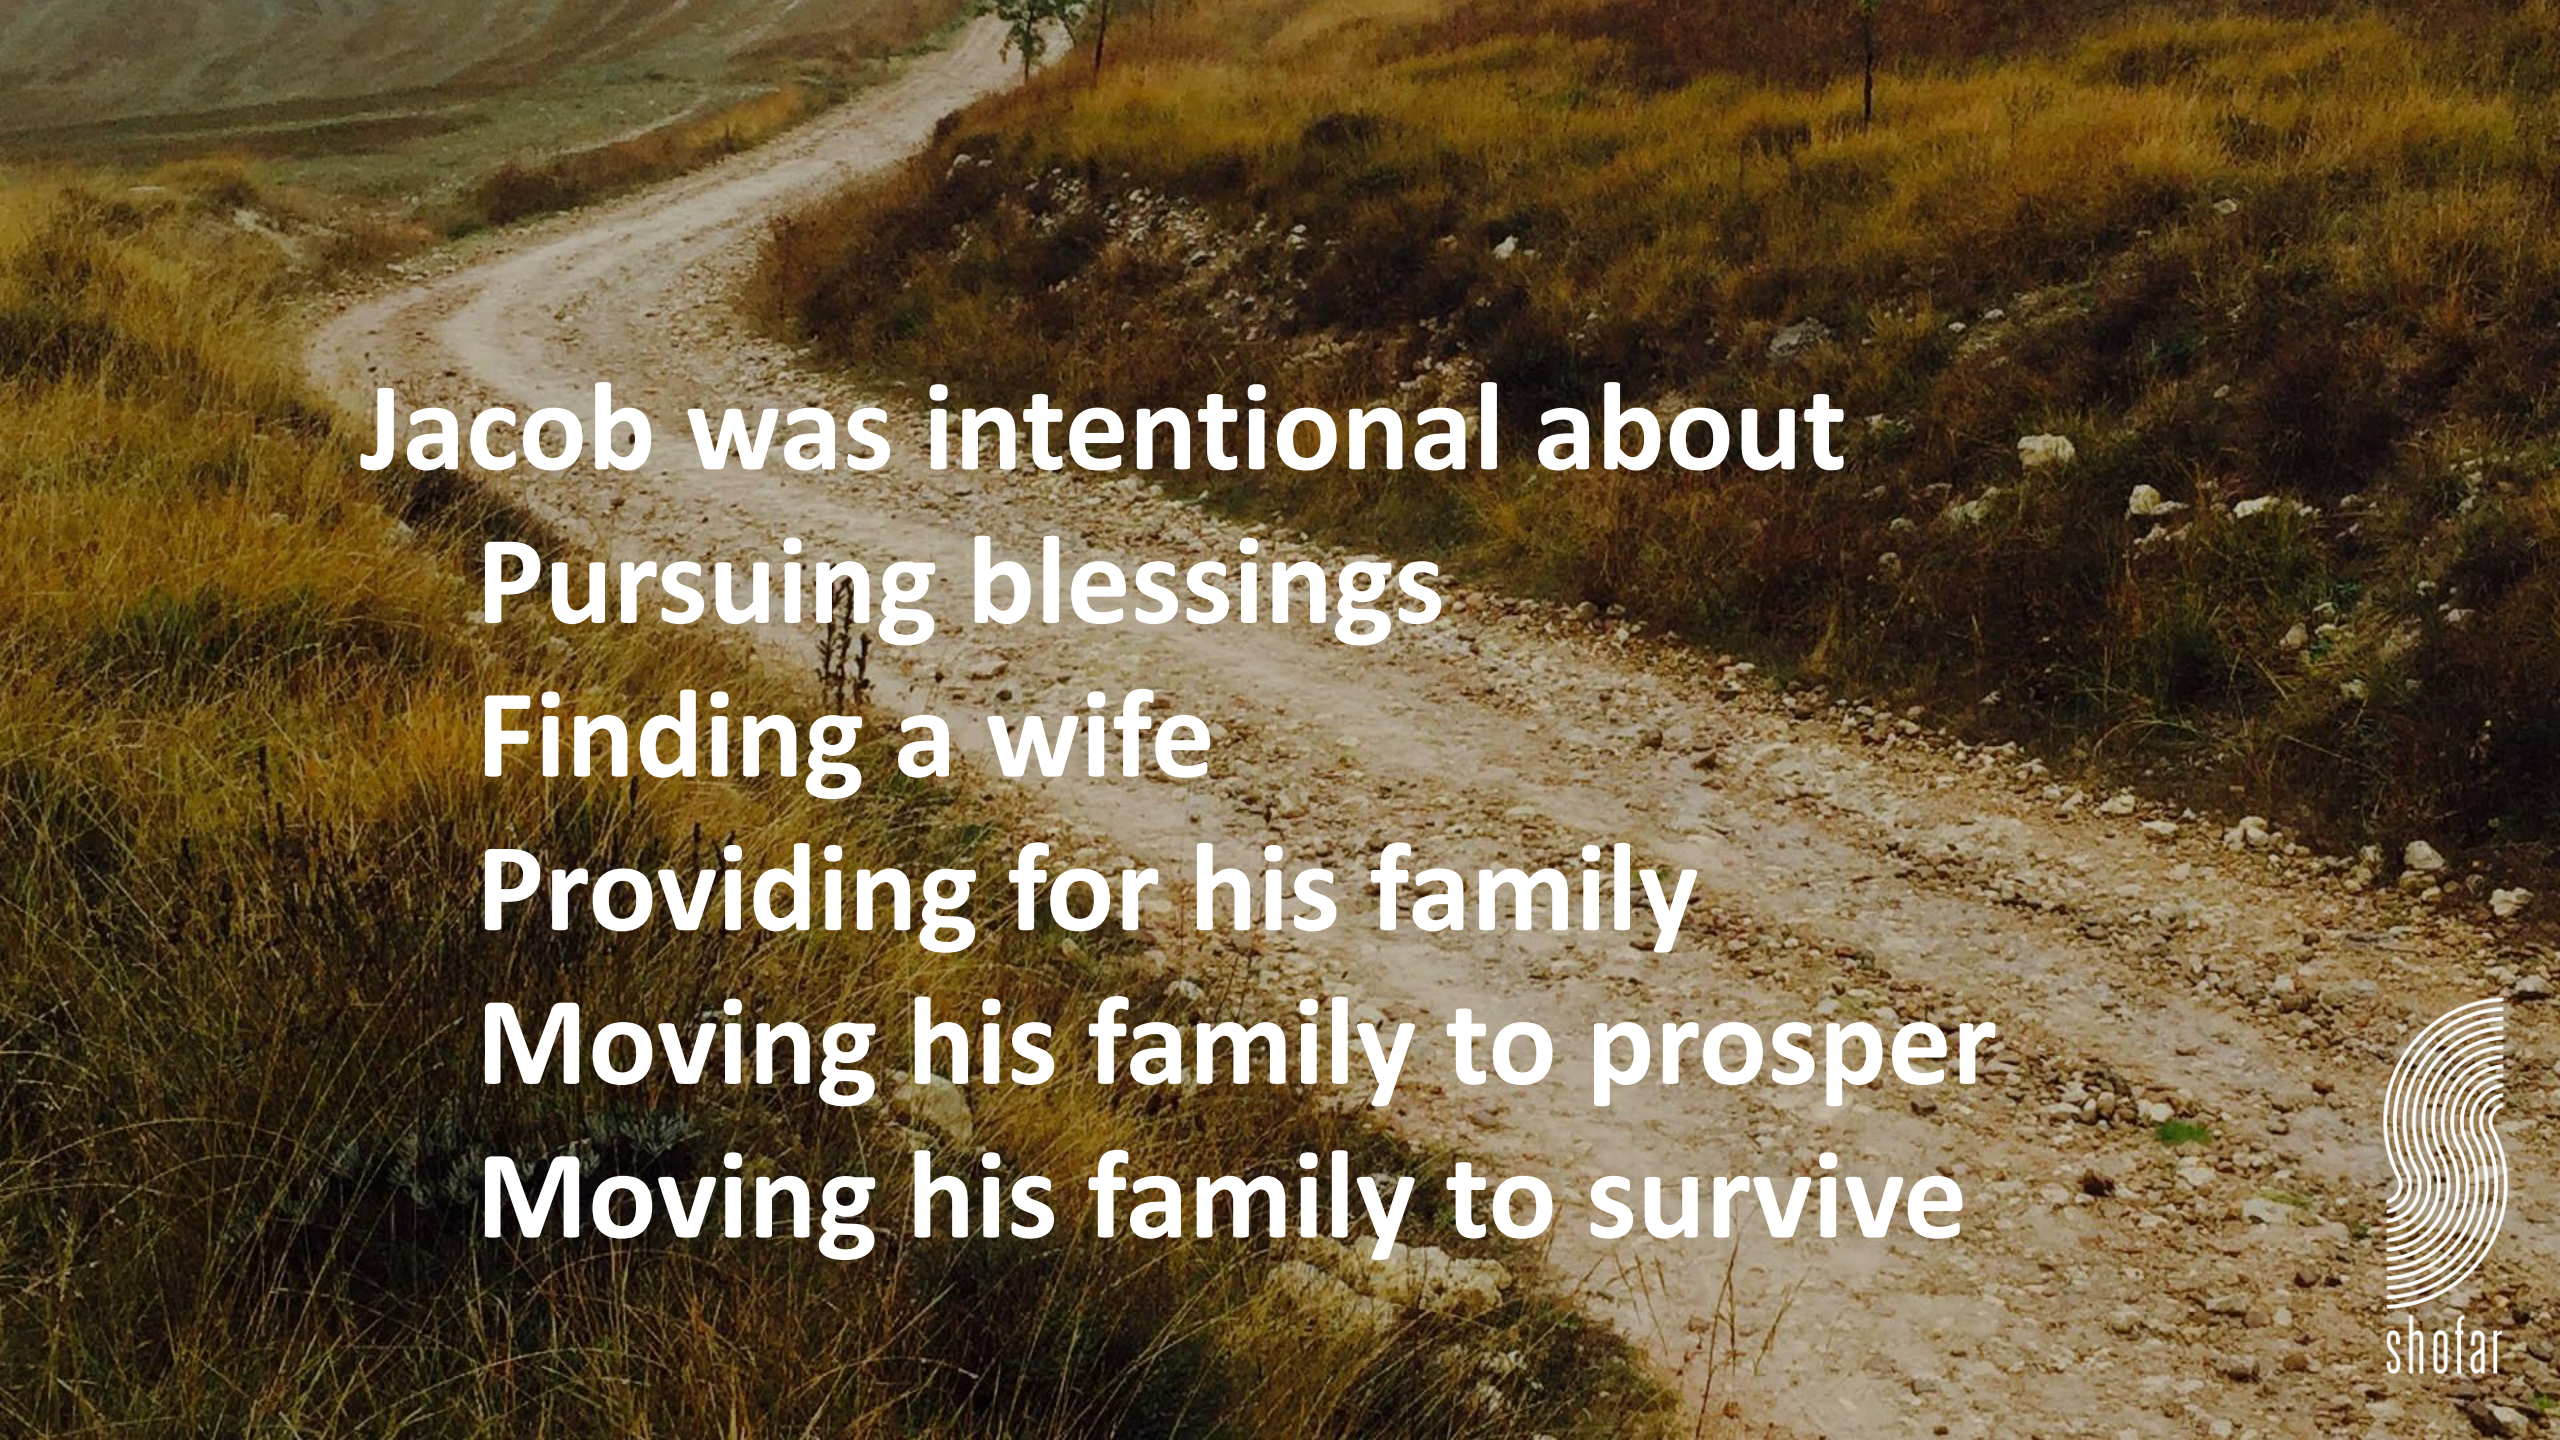

Genesis 28:20 (NIV)

20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and will watch over me on this journey

...21 so that I return safely to my father’s household, then the Lord will be my God

Lay down your life

Isaiah 64:8 (NIV)

8 Yet you, Lord, are our Father.

We are the clay, you are the potter;
we are all the work of your hand.

Proverbs 27:17 (NIV)
17 As iron sharpens iron,
so one person sharpens another.
