We only have to be who God has created us to be; we are called to accomplish only what He has designed us to do. Brennfleck

You'll not be judged according to what you did, but rather according to what you were called to do" John Bevere

⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, ⁹ not a result of works, so that no one may boast.
¹⁰ For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. (Ephesians 2:8–10).

28 We are assured and know that [[a]God being a partner in their labor] all things work together and are [fitting into a plan] for good to and for those who love God and are called according to [His] design and purpose. Romans 8:28

I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. John 15:5

1Co 3:9 For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building.

1Co 3:10 According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it.

1Co 3:11 For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

1Co 3:12 Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw—

1Co 3:13 each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done.

1Co 3:14 If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward.

1Co 3:15 If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.
