Waiting well Part I: The full effect of waiting
Stefan Cronje
Context
Do you enjoy waiting? Emotive response towards patience? Modern consumers are "Always On"
My recent encounter with waiting

James 1: 1-4 NKJV
"James, a bondservant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad: Greetings.
My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work , that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing."

Outline

- Our faith tested through waiting
- 2. The 'full effect' of waiting patiently
- 3. What we are ultimately waiting for

Coming soon...

How to wait well // Keys while we wait

James 1: 1-4 NKJV

"James, a bondservant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad: Greetings. My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing."

What is patience?

Patience = Hypomonēn

Definition

A remaining behind, a patient enduring

Synonyms

Patience, endurance, steadfastness, perseverance

What is the full effect?
The double bottom-line of waiting well There's a promise beneath the promise
God will sometimes give a promise for our ENvironment, because he wants to do something in our INvironment
	·
The work God does while we wait
Noah
Waited 120 years for the predicted rains Abraham
Waited 25 years for a promised son Joseph
Waited 14 years in prison (falsely accused) Job
Waited 60-70 years for God's justice
The work God does while we wait
God prepares leaders in a slow-cooker, not in a microwave oven. More important than the awaited goal is the work God does in us while we wait.

Hebrews 11: 8-16 NKJV

"...he waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God."

Hebrews 11: 8-16 NKJV "These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them, embraced them and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth... But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them." James 5: 7-8 NKJV "Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain. You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand." While waiting for a promise, remember the promise of waiting and remember what we are ultimately waiting for.
